

A SUICIDAL WAVE

Fourteen Persons Kill Themselves in New York in One Day.

WHY INGALLS DECLINED AN OFFER

He Was Invited to Accept the Editorship, but Refused.

REFORM NEEDED IN CITY AFFAIRS.

The Municipal Government Has Been Badly Managed and the People Want a New Deal—Tammany Must Fight.

New York, June 19.—(Special Correspondence).—A wave of suicide swept over the city yesterday.

Mr. James F. Forshay killed his little son, and then killed himself. Constant

William Alters married a rich girl Saturday, quarreled about money matters Sunday and cut his throat Monday morning.

Seven women and five men besides the two whose names are given here committed suicide yesterday. Domestic trouble and hard times are given as the causes.

Ex-Senator Ingalls.

The story that ex-Senator John J. Ingalls has declined the editorship of a big New York city daily newspaper recalls the connection of his name with the editorial was declared that the ex-senator, just after he dropped out of the United States senate, had been offered $15,000 a year to take the editorship of Truth. He did not become the editor.

said the e-senator to the writer once, in speaking of the story of the paper, "than with the change which Truth has undergone. Why, when I was mentioned in connection with the editorship, I was to conduct a sort of weekly review of current events and conditions."

entirely different view of weekly journalism, and seems to have made a phenomenal hit in striking illustrations. Yes, I was offered a very large salary to edit the paper, but declined, and was then asked to become a uld for a short while, but it takes me a good while to write for publication. I can talk volubly enough, but when it comes to placing myself or my thoughts on paper for publication I want time to think—think well and several times before allowing the seem strange for a man who talks as much as I do. I am a very slow writer—might say ponderously slow—when I am engaged in writing something which may come up for discussion."

by Mrs. Lease, of Kansas. He declared that he could not get back at her attacks—she was a woman, and that meant a great deal when taken from the political stump standpoint.

There will be a struggle for a reform in our city government.

It is notorious that we are able to get that only on compulsion. Mr. Acker cites the rapid transit act and the bill depriving the sheriff of $50,000 from the fees of his office as samples of the municipal benefits which would never have been granted by flavors were fairly wrung from the legislature by repeated, popular demands, that before it was granted the rapid transit act was altered and doctored in such a way as to weaken its commission and delay the date of going into effect for six transit act passed also, under the stimulus of a corruption fund of $85,000, the bill increasing police salaries $400,000 a year. Only a few years ago another legislature increased the number of our worthless police justices from eleven to sixteen, with a view of $8,000 each, and we have had to bear that burden ever since. Legislature after legislature has refused to give us any reform in our police justice bench, and bills hostile to the city's interest are passed by the score, in spite of all protest, because the rural members, who vote against them

But the chief lapsus in Mr. Acker's statement is to be found in his failure to enumerate unwise legislative acts for the city.

The Tribune asks why its party "should not pursue this year the ordinary and

Because good government in this city is not a political question. It has no relation to the political issues which divide the two great parties. It is a business parties should unite. And because, in the second place, the republican party is in a minority of 70,000, compared with the democrats alone. On a straight party issue it cannot hope to succeed. In preventing a necessary and hopeful union it would

Republicans mistake the hour and the temper of the people if they fancy that this is a favorable time for spoils and party supremacy. The same is equally true of the "state democracy." A republican boss is no better than a Tammany boss. A

The election of last November, which proved a staggering blow to Tammany and paved the way to its overthrow, was an uprising against bossism and machine domination of any and every kind. The fruits of this uprising are to be reaped, not by Justice Cullen, of the supreme court, in Brooklyn, has dismissed the complaint in the proceedings instituted by Fred H.

Justice Cullen finds that the plaintiff bought the mortgage bonds of the Athens bringing an action in confusion with the New York Water Supply Company after the alleged breach of contract; and that the Water Supply Company, in 1911 and 1922, had failed to perform the contract between itself and the city of Athens.

who proposed to build an island of several acres in extent just beyond the jurisdiction of New York intend to make it a gambling resort. Atalantis, as the island will be called, will be an independent country, subject to no laws, and its inhabitants and visitors will be free to run lotteries and interfered with by the authorities of any state. It will take a few years to build the island, but there is no doubt that the proprietors will find it a bonanza.

AND EN
R SHOES.Color.
w in Price.

HOES.

Street.

A CAMPAIGN.

Thinking All Over the ing Democrats.June 20. (Special.)—The have been made state executive com-Oates will address at Raleigh, Pickens county, Friday, June county, Saturday afternoon, Tuesday, June

county, Wednesday, county, Saturday, June county, Monday, county, Tuesday, Wednesday, of Jefferson, will

at Fayetteville Court

Hamilton.

and Tennent Lomax

citizens in June 20th.

June 27th.

June 28th.

June 29th.

June 30th.

July 1st.

July 2nd.

July 3rd.

July 4th.

July 5th.

July 6th.

July 7th.

July 8th.

July 9th.

July 10th.

July 11th.

July 12th.

July 13th.

July 14th.

July 15th.

July 16th.

July 17th.

July 18th.

July 19th.

July 20th.

July 21st.

July 22nd.

July 23rd.

July 24th.

July 25th.

July 26th.

July 27th.

July 28th.

July 29th.

July 30th.

August 1st.

August 2nd.

August 3rd.

August 4th.

August 5th.

August 6th.

August 7th.

August 8th.

August 9th.

August 10th.

August 11th.

August 12th.

August 13th.

August 14th.

August 15th.

August 16th.

August 17th.

August 18th.

August 19th.

August 20th.

August 21st.

August 22nd.

August 23rd.

August 24th.

August 25th.

August 26th.

August 27th.

August 28th.

August 29th.

August 30th.

September 1st.

September 2nd.

A BRILLIANT CLOSE.

The State University Graduates a Class of Bright Young Men.

GREATEST DAY OF THE YEAR IN ATHENS

Visitors from All Over Georgia Attended the Exercises—S. B. Yow, of Avalon, Takes the First Honor.Athens, Ga., June 20. (Special.)—This was commencement day and the ninety-fourth session of the University of Georgia is at an end.Never in the history of this grand old institution has she had a more progressive and prosperous year. Crowned with all the glories of a century, supported by a large and influential alumni and upheld on all sides by all patriotic Georgians, she has renewed her youth with marked vigor and is in a better condition today than ever before.Every day sees an increase in her influence on the advancement of the best interests of the state. Daily the prejudices against her which are agitated by those particularly interested in sectarian colleges, seem to be growing less and less, and the patriotism of the citizens of Georgia is constantly being evidenced toward this grandest of all Georgia's institutions.For the first time there seems a unanimi-ty of support on the part of Georgians toward the university, which is close akin to that of the people of Virginia and North Carolina for their state institutions.The stories of the commencements of "old times" at Athens are glorious certainly, but with all their grandeur they could not exceed the commencement of today.From every city and town in the state prominent people have flocked to Athens.
The chapel has been daily crowded with visitors eager to hear the debates and orations of the young men who will some day control the destinies of the state.Every night the halls and receptions, which have added glory to the splendid reputation of the gay old town, have thrown in friendly contact the society favorites of the whole state.The graduating exercises.
This morning's exercises of the graduating class were of special interest. The baccalaureate address by Dr. H. C. White, president of the Georgia Agricultural and Mechanical college, was the event of the day.This gifted and eloquent school never in all its illustrious career appeared to better advantage. With words of strongest truth and eloquence he delivered the final benediction and advice of their alma mater upon the graduating classes.His oration was so thoroughly appreciated by the vast audience, as was evidenced by the abundant applause which constantly interrupted it.The speakers and essays of the graduating class were as follows:Joseph Akerman, B. E. Atlanta, Ga. Oration—
"The Importance of a Popular Training in Political Economy."W. A. Fuller, Jr., B. E. Atlanta, Ga. Oration—
"The Irony of History."John D. Stelling, B. E. Augusta, Ga. Oration—
"True Greatness."The following members of the law class were as follows:Frank Mitchell, B. L., Crawfordville, Ga. Oration—"The Lawyer and His Profession."H. C. Strong, B. L., Atlanta, Tenn. Oration—
"The Dynamic Force of Truth."The following members of the law class were as follows:

S. B. Yow, first honor, S. B. Yow, Avalon, Ga.; second honor, W. T. Bacon, Lexington, Ga.; third honor, W. A. Fuller, Jr., Atlanta, Ga.; fourth honor, J. M. Moore, Augusta, Ga.; fifth honor, J. Akerman, Athens, Ga.; sixth honor, J. Akerman, Athens, Ga.; seventh honor, G. P. Butler, Augusta, Ga.

Honorary Degrees.

The following well known Georgians were honored by the university with honorary
degrees of Arts—Professor W. F. Slaton,
president of the University of Georgia,
and William LeRoy Brown, president of
Agricultural and Mechanical college,
Savannah.Doctor of Laws—General A. R. Lawton,
Savannah.Doctor of Science—George P. Butler, of Augusta,
and Noel McHenry Moore, of Augusta,
both honor men in this year's graduating
class.The following well known Georgians were
honored by the university with honorary
degrees of Arts—Professor W. F. Slaton,
president of the University of Georgia,
and William LeRoy Brown, president of
Agricultural and Mechanical college,
Savannah.Doctor of Laws—General A. R. Lawton,
Savannah.Doctor of Science—George P. Butler, of Augusta,
and Noel McHenry Moore, of Augusta,
both honor men in this year's graduating
class.The following well known Georgians were
honored by the university with honorary
degrees of Arts—Professor W. F. Slaton,
president of the University of Georgia,
and William LeRoy Brown, president of
Agricultural and Mechanical college,
Savannah.Doctor of Laws—General A. R. Lawton,
Savannah.Doctor of Science—George P. Butler, of Augusta,
and Noel McHenry Moore, of Augusta,
both honor men in this year's graduating
class.The following well known Georgians were
honored by the university with honorary
degrees of Arts—Professor W. F. Slaton,
president of the University of Georgia,
and William LeRoy Brown, president of
Agricultural and Mechanical college,
Savannah.Doctor of Laws—General A. R. Lawton,
Savannah.Doctor of Science—George P. Butler, of Augusta,
and Noel McHenry Moore, of Augusta,
both honor men in this year's graduating
class.The following well known Georgians were
honored by the university with honorary
degrees of Arts—Professor W. F. Slaton,
president of the University of Georgia,
and William LeRoy Brown, president of
Agricultural and Mechanical college,
Savannah.Doctor of Laws—General A. R. Lawton,
Savannah.Doctor of Science—George P. Butler, of Augusta,
and Noel McHenry Moore, of Augusta,
both honor men in this year's graduating
class.The following well known Georgians were
honored by the university with honorary
degrees of Arts—Professor W. F. Slaton,
president of the University of Georgia,
and William LeRoy Brown, president of
Agricultural and Mechanical college,
Savannah.Doctor of Laws—General A. R. Lawton,
Savannah.Doctor of Science—George P. Butler, of Augusta,
and Noel McHenry Moore, of Augusta,
both honor men in this year's graduating
class.The following well known Georgians were
honored by the university with honorary
degrees of Arts—Professor W. F. Slaton,
president of the University of Georgia,
and William LeRoy Brown, president of
Agricultural and Mechanical college,
Savannah.Doctor of Laws—General A. R. Lawton,
Savannah.Doctor of Science—George P. Butler, of Augusta,
and Noel McHenry Moore, of Augusta,
both honor men in this year's graduating
class.The following well known Georgians were
honored by the university with honorary
degrees of Arts—Professor W. F. Slaton,
president of the University of Georgia,
and William LeRoy Brown, president of
Agricultural and Mechanical college,
Savannah.Doctor of Laws—General A. R. Lawton,
Savannah.Doctor of Science—George P. Butler, of Augusta,
and Noel McHenry Moore, of Augusta,
both honor men in this year's graduating
class.The following well known Georgians were
honored by the university with honorary
degrees of Arts—Professor W. F. Slaton,
president of the University of Georgia,
and William LeRoy Brown, president of
Agricultural and Mechanical college,
Savannah.Doctor of Laws—General A. R. Lawton,
Savannah.Doctor of Science—George P. Butler, of Augusta,
and Noel McHenry Moore, of Augusta,
both honor men in this year's graduating
class.The following well known Georgians were
honored by the university with honorary
degrees of Arts—Professor W. F. Slaton,
president of the University of Georgia,
and William LeRoy Brown, president of
Agricultural and Mechanical college,
Savannah.Doctor of Laws—General A. R. Lawton,
Savannah.Doctor of Science—George P. Butler, of Augusta,
and Noel McHenry Moore, of Augusta,
both honor men in this year's graduating
class.The following well known Georgians were
honored by the university with honorary
degrees of Arts—Professor W. F. Slaton,
president of the University of Georgia,
and William LeRoy Brown, president of
Agricultural and Mechanical college,
Savannah.Doctor of Laws—General A. R. Lawton,
Savannah.Doctor of Science—George P. Butler, of Augusta,
and Noel McHenry Moore, of Augusta,
both honor men in this year's graduating
class.The following well known Georgians were
honored by the university with honorary
degrees of Arts—Professor W. F. Slaton,
president of the University of Georgia,
and William LeRoy Brown, president of
Agricultural and Mechanical college,
Savannah.Doctor of Laws—General A. R. Lawton,
Savannah.Doctor of Science—George P. Butler, of Augusta,
and Noel McHenry Moore, of Augusta,
both honor men in this year's graduating
class.The following well known Georgians were
honored by the university with honorary
degrees of Arts—Professor W. F. Slaton,
president of the University of Georgia,
and William LeRoy Brown, president of
Agricultural and Mechanical college,
Savannah.Doctor of Laws—General A. R. Lawton,
Savannah.Doctor of Science—George P. Butler, of Augusta,
and Noel McHenry Moore, of Augusta,
both honor men in this year's graduating
class.The following well known Georgians were
honored by the university with honorary
degrees of Arts—Professor W. F. Slaton,
president of the University of Georgia,
and William LeRoy Brown, president of
Agricultural and Mechanical college,
Savannah.Doctor of Laws—General A. R. Lawton,
Savannah.Doctor of Science—George P. Butler, of Augusta,
and Noel McHenry Moore, of Augusta,
both honor men in this year's graduating
class.The following well known Georgians were
honored by the university with honorary
degrees of Arts—Professor W. F. Slaton,
president of the University of Georgia,
and William LeRoy Brown, president of
Agricultural and Mechanical college,
Savannah.Doctor of Laws—General A. R. Lawton,
Savannah.Doctor of Science—George P. Butler, of Augusta,
and Noel McHenry Moore, of Augusta,
both honor men in this year's graduating
class.The following well known Georgians were
honored by the university with honorary
degrees of Arts—Professor W. F. Slaton,
president of the University of Georgia,
and William LeRoy Brown, president of
Agricultural and Mechanical college,
Savannah.Doctor of Laws—General A. R. Lawton,
Savannah.Doctor of Science—George P. Butler, of Augusta,
and Noel McHenry Moore, of Augusta,
both honor men in this year's graduating
class.The following well known Georgians were
honored by the university with honorary
degrees of Arts—Professor W. F. Slaton,
president of the University of Georgia,
and William LeRoy Brown, president of
Agricultural and Mechanical college,
Savannah.Doctor of Laws—General A. R. Lawton,
Savannah.Doctor of Science—George P. Butler, of Augusta,
and Noel McHenry Moore, of Augusta,
both honor men in this year's graduating class.distinction at the bar as his well known father.James E. Brannen is from Irie, in the southern part of the state. He is the son's original, earnest, solid men. He is a good student and has already been elected principal of the high school at his home.Henry Brown is from Augusta, and is the best athlete in the class having captured a majority of the honors on last year. He has been a most active worker in behalf of the students and served this year as president of the association.
He is captain of one of the military companies. He will respectably become a civil engineer. He is also on the board of Pandora editors.George Butler is also from Augusta, and is one of the best all round students and man in the B. E. class. He is the first captain of the Varsity football team and is also a member of the military companies.
He also will become a civil engineer.D. L. Cloud, of Thompson, is one of the best of the class and also expects to follow the life of civil engineering. He has two brothers, graduates of the university, who are experts in the service.Edwin Davis, of Greenville, is one of the original men, and is one of the most fame both in the class. He has won honors in the ball field and has been captain of the Varsity football team. He expects to pursue a course of study in law and will prepare himself for the profession of law.George W. Berkett is from Savannah, and entered the class as a junior. He is the best musician of the class and has been one of the leading students in the B. E. department and expects to become a civil engineer.Dorsey is from the Gen City of Georgia, and entered the class as a junior. He will probably study law at some southern college.Paul Fleming is from Atlanta, and is one of the most popular men in his class.
He is well known in college. He has been prominent in athletics and served as manager of the association. He will enter business in Atlanta and is one of the business managers of the Pandora.L. D. Ficks, of Rising Fawn, is one of the most popular men in the class, and is one of the most energetic workers on the Pandora. He will study law.A. Fuller is from Atlanta, and is one of the best students in the class. He has stood in the front ranks since entering the class and will be one of the most men. He will take post graduate work and then study law. He was appointed commencement speaker for the class.W. P. Harbin is from Calhoun, Ga. He has been one of the most accurate students in the class and has been a member of the in-law school. He has been a member of becoming a follower of the plus. He will study medicine at a New York school, but expects to return to his home and become a cotton magnate.J. M. Harrington first saw the light at West Point, Ga. He also entered the class as a freshman and is one of the brightest members, and has made a creditable class record. He is one of the most popular men in the class and has the honor of being its president. He will either study medicine or become a cotton magnate.C. D. McCutchen is from Dalton, Ga., in the northern part of the state. He is one of the class' most popular men. He is the son of the class' most popular men.
He has won the applause of multitudes both on the diamond and the football gridiron.
He has not as yet fully decided as to what he will do, but will probably study law.T. A. McGregor is from the gopher county of south Georgia, but has proved a worthy member of '94. He will either study law or cast his lot with the senators of the fourth estate. He has been an active worker in his literary society and is one of the club's most popular members.No. 100. Moore is from Augusta, and has been a member of the class for four years. He has been one of its leaders from the beginning and is among its brightest men. He and Bacon led sophomores, and he is now one of the editors-in-chief of the Pandora. He will probably follow medicine as a profession.T. R. Moyle is from Sandersville. He is a student and at present is a member of the senior baseball nine. He will probably become a merchant after graduating.
A. W. Stephens is from Atlanta, and has been a member of the class since the sophomore year. He is one of the class' most popular members, and will probably study law as his chosen profession.John V. Stubbs is from Cedartown. He is one of the best students and most popular members of the class.

JOSEPH AKERMAN.

He follows in the class. He expects to enter the cotton business in Chattanooga after graduation.Charles R. Tidwell is from Atlanta and has been with the class for four years.
He is a treasurer of the class and one of the editors-in-chiefs of the Pandora. He will follow business in Atlanta.J. D. Stelling is from Augusta, and is one of the brightest and handsomest fellows in his class. He has always marked well in his classes and will be one of the class' most worthy graduates. He will be a civil engineer.Arthur Wiley is from Macon, and is one of the original men of the class. He has stood high in his classes, and is one of the best athletes in college. He will also become a civil engineer.The members of the law class who today received their diploma and were sworn in of them admitted to the bar of practice in any and all Georgia courts, are as brilliant a set of men as were ever turned out of the law school.Robert D. Brooks, Camilla, Ga., the son of the class, will practice with his father at Camilla. Mr. Bush graduated at Emory college last year with the degree of bachelor of arts, standing high in his class. He has achieved a deserved popularity while at Athens.Augustus D. Daly, of Macon, will appear before the Macon bar after continuing his studies in law at some other law school.
Daly has been especially brilliant in the dramatic and glee clubs of the university, also taking much interest in athletics. He bears the reputation of being the youngest man in his class and is one of the best liked by the entire student body.Charles David Kline, of the famous class of '93, that graduated from the university last year, has done especially well in this year's law class and was today declared a bachelor of law of distinction. Mr.
Kline is the son of Mr. C. T. Kline, of the Central Railroad of Georgia. He has spent much of his time in Mexico, and is well known in the Spanish language, and a poet he has scarcely a peer in the university. He will, in all probability, hang his shingle in some western city.Jefferson Davis Lanier, of Savannah, is a doctor of dental surgery, besides a bachelor of law. He was intended to practice dentistry before deciding on law as a profession. He will practice in Savannah.R. Rufus Lester, of Savannah, is one of the most distinguished men in the present class, having been allied with everything good in the progress of the university.
He has been an ardent supporter of athletics and the dramatic and glee clubs. He has been a member of the cultural college at Milledgeville and also graduated at Williams, Andover, Mass.A. M. Martin, of Jacksonville, has produced himself an orator of splendid ability since entering the university law school.
He graduated at the Martin institute. He is of quiet disposition, but still one of the most popular men in his studies since his entrance into the law.James C. Mell, of Athens, graduated a bachelor of arts in 1891, and has always been a member of the class. He is the son of a distinguished member of the university.
Mr. Mell has been in the law in this city in connection with his brothers.Frank Mitchell, of Crawfordville, was the second honor in this year's class and will certainly make one of the most successful lawyers in this line. He graduated as a bachelor of arts in 1891, and has always been a member of the class.James H. Mobley, of Lumber City, is an
A. B. of Mercer university, last year.class. He is a man of splendid energy and enthusiasm for everything he undertakes. He will certainly achieve great things in his chosen profession.Charles E. Smith, of Buford, Ga., is the secretary of the class, and will practice law in Atlanta. He is one of the youngest in the class, and one of the best and brightest of the students.J. J. Stafford, of Brunswick, formerly known as Judge Stafford, on account of his legal proclivities, which are already very marked, is one of the oldest men in the class and one of the most popular in his native town.David S. Sterling, of Atlanta, Tenn., has taken a very prominent stand in the class. He is a graduate of the University of South Carolina. He is one of the steady and most popular men in his class.Hugh C. Strong is another citizen of Tennessee, but will practice before Georgia courts. He took first honor in this year's class and delivered this morning a very excellent oration on the subject of "Dynamic Force of Truth," and was a bright hard student and a good speaker.Stephen C. Lison, of Athens, graduated here as a bachelor of arts in 1890. He then graduated at the University of Virginia, the school of chemistry and took honors in the school of mines, Columbia, New York city. He was for twelve months chemist at Phoenix gold mine, Arizona, but has since returned to the study of law. He stood fourth in this year's class and will make his mark before long.Louis Bacon Warren, of Macon, is a graduate of Richmond college, Virginia, class of '92, and a bachelor of arts. Here at the university he has been one of the best distinguished athletes of the year.
He is a member of the Varsity football and base ball teams. As a student he has stood well, and he will do well in the Central College.George W. Young, of North Dakota, has come to Georgia to get his legal education, and is a graduate of the University of Minnesota, where he has made good use of his time, studying hard and taking a splendid stand. He is regarded as the class' best student, and this distinction was accorded him on account of his well deserved popularity.Barrett Palfrey, of Athens, is one of the most notable figures in the class. He will not receive a diploma with this year's class, having entered only a few months ago,
too late to complete the prescribed course.
He will graduate with the class of '95.W. H. White, of Athens, only entered the class a few months ago, and was unable to complete the entire course.
However, he will graduate next year with distinction, as he is a man of splendid legal mind and always makes a success of whatever he undert

THE CONSTITUTION.

PUBLISHED DAILY, MONDAY, WEEKLY.

The Daily, per year, . . . . . $5.00
 The Sunday (20 to 25 pages), . . . . . 2.00
 The Daily and Sunday, per year, . . . . . 7.00
 The Weekly, per year, . . . . . 1.00
 All editions sent postpaid to all addresses.
 At these reduced rates all subscriptions must be paid in advance.

Where to Find The Constitution.
 The Constitution can be found on sale as follows:

WASHINGTON—Metropolitan Hotel.
 JACKSONVILLE—H. Drew & Bro.,
 CINCINNATI—J. R. Hawley, 162 Vine St.
 NEW YORK—Brentano's, 154 Fifth avenue;
 Fifth Avenue hotel news stand.
 CHICAGO—P. O. News Company, 91 Adams street; Great Northern hotel; McDonald & Co., 55 Washington St.
 KANSAS CITY—W. A. Rode, 618 Main St.
 SAN FRANCISCO—J. C. Walter.

12 CENTS PER WEEK.
 For The Daily Constitution, or 50 cents per calendar month. Sixteen cents per week for The Daily and Sunday Constitution, or 75 cents per calendar month; delivered to any address by carrier in the city of Atlanta. Send in your name at once.

10 PAGES.

ATLANTA, GA., June 21, 1894.

Call the Committee Together.

The state democratic executive committee should be called together with as little delay as possible, in order that it may take preliminary steps for organizing for the state campaign.

The state convention does not meet until the 2d of August, and in the meantime the opponents of the democracy are not only actively in the field, but they are effecting a thorough and systematic organization in every county and in every militia district in the state.

If democrats are to fight among themselves from now until the 2d of August their opponents will be blessed with a condition which should not exist, and which, while being fortuitous to the opposition will be both demoralizing and dangerous to the democracy.

It is apparent now, however much we may regret to admit the defeat of General Evans, that Mr. Atkinson will be nominated. He already has 144 of the delegates elected, and it is simply a question of a few days before he will have a clear majority of the convention.

It has been a phenomenal campaign, and Mr. Atkinson has developed a speed which has astonished even his most earnest advocates. The result is attributable not only to Mr. Atkinson's ability as a campaigner, but more especially to the exceeding care with which he has been groomed and the experienced and masterly training of his political attendants, who have held the reins at every curve of the campaign, and who have now turned down the home-stretch to complete the most remarkable circle run in years. There were slight breaks in Coffee, in Telfair, in Oconee and in Fannin counties, but somehow or other, the people did not seem to mind them, and Mr. Atkinson's lead, which was bad enough, for us, three weeks ago, has gone from bad to worse, until the finish is in sight long before the convention grand stand is reached.

One after another General Evans's friends, and in many cases his most active newspaper champions, recognizing the inevitable, concede the certainty of Mr. Atkinson's nomination. The Constitution is among the last to do so. But when the interest of party is at stake we see no reason why the issue should be indefinitely continued, when no possible good, and very probable harm, can grow out of it.

But all's well that ends well! General Evans is as strong today in the confidence of the people as he has ever been. He is a loyal, true and tried democrat. He will be needed between now and October, and when the democracy calls he will answer just like he did in the early sixties, when Georgia called and he was among the first to respond.

But it was not of the gubernatorial nomination that we intended to speak, further than to say that the contest was practically at an end, and to urge the assembling of the executive committee at once in order that a campaign committee might be put in charge of the details of organization, so as to lose as little time as possible in making preparations for the regular campaign. The party must not deceive itself with the idea that it has a walk-over in Georgia this year, for it has not.

There is work ahead for it, and serious work at that, but the way is clear to victory if the party is true to its colors, true to its obligations, true to its faithful representatives and true to the people. Such being the case, Georgia's old-time democratic majority may be expected.

The executive committee should assemble without delay!

Quite Serious.

Several days ago The Constitution took the position that the continued exports of gold under the present condition of affairs is a much more serious affair than some of the financial newspapers of New York are willing to admit.

It seems that President Williams, of the Chemical Bank, of New York, is of the same opinion. Our dispatches yesterday set forth the fact that at a meeting of bank presidents held in New York city Mr. Williams, of the Chemical Bank, took a serious view of the situation. He said that if the reserve were permitted to run down to $50,000,000 an alarm might be created that would result in serious consequences.

We are not sure there would be any alarm, but we are quite sure that the depletion of the reserve at this time is a much more serious matter than it was when the Sherman law was in operation. Gold is now the sole basis of our currency system and is a very material part of the volume of circulation. Every dollar that goes out is a curtailment of our circulating medium to just that extent.

The largest additions that have ever been made to the volume of our currency during the last thirty years were at the rate of $4,500,000 a month when the Sherman law was in operation, but for some time our gold has been going abroad at the rate of more than $25,000,000 a month. This is contracting the currency with a vengeance, and it is bound to have a serious effect on business and on the prosperity of the country. A contracting currency, in whatever shape the contraction comes, is death to all the sources of prosperity.

Louisiana and Our Exposition.

The New Orleans papers are backing the Atlanta exposition in a sensible and business-like way.

The Picayune, after calling attention to the endorsement of the exposition by the southern governors and the press and business organizations of the country, urges the legislature to make an appropriation that will enable Louisiana to make a first-class exhibit. It says:

This is no sentimental matter as it was to a large extent the Columbian exposition at Chicago, which is wholly a business affair. What is wanted in an exhibit at Atlanta is a full and complete showing of the sugar, cotton and rice production and manufacturing of Louisiana, and a proper representation of the timber, minerals and fishery products of the state, with all the requisite information pertaining to them, besides maps showing railroads and waterways, and statistics concerning the healthfulness of the climate. All matters which possess a commercial value should be provided for in the appropriation, which should be as liberal as possible.

There is every reason why the legislature should make such an appropriation, and none why it should not. The great industrial and commercial depression from which the whole country is suffering has borne most heavily upon the western states, where, indeed, it started, and by consequence that region, which formerly absorbed most of the foreign and domestic capital seeking investment, is now in much diminished esteem with capitalists. It is believed that such a juncture of circumstances presents a peculiar opportunity for advertising the south, for which the most favorable exposition at Atlanta presents a most favorable occasion.

The Times-Democrat is on the same line. It says that our cotton exposition twelve years ago was a revelation to the country and created a new spirit in the south, and started that section upon its present career of progress. The new exposition. The Times-Democrat predicts, will accomplish a similar work on a much larger scale. Our contemporary favors a government appropriation and liberal state appropriations, and says of Louisiana:

In view of the fact that our legislature is now in session, Louisiana is the first asked to vote the necessary appropriation. When we gave an exposition in New Orleans and invited the other states here, all Georgia particularly responded liberally, but we do not advance this as an argument in favor of an appropriation. Louisiana is asked to provide for a state exhibit, not on account of former favors, but because it will be benefited tenfold. That point need not be discussed, as it has already been thoroughly tested, and we know that for every dollar invested in a state exhibit we will get back ten or a hundred fold.

With such approvals, with demands so unanimous for a handsome state exhibit, the legislature will certainly not refuse an appropriation for it. What that appropriation should be will depend upon the amount available; but the legislature should not forget that the more it gives, and the better Louisiana is represented, the more the people will get in return in new industries, capital investment and immigrants.

The spirit of the Louisiana people reflected in their leading newspapers is the spirit of progress, and it is to be hoped that it will be contagious. Louisiana has it in her power to make a magnificent display of her resources and products at our exposition—one that will attract the attention of the outside world—and we take it for granted that her legislature will see that no obstacle is thrown in the way.

Every state in the union should make liberal provision for exhibits that will give our Spanish-American visitors an idea of what inducements they can offer foreign consumers. The exposition will bring together the representatives of the trading, producing and consuming classes of the United States and the countries south of us. It will open a new era of commerce and industry, and the cities and states that desire to go to the front in this movement should remember that Atlanta will be the starting point, and that there is no time to be lost in getting ready for it.

Politics in Georgia.

Under this head an editorial in the current number of Frank Leslie's Weekly predicts that the democrats of this state will find their hands uncomfortably full in the approaching gubernatorial campaign, if the apparent harmony and zeal of the populists count for anything.

Our contemporary goes on to say that the democrats are badly divided, while the populists are practically unanimous. These surface indications are misleading. It is the fashion these days for democrats to indulge in very plain talk when they are discussing men and measures, but when the test comes it will be found that an overwhelming majority of democrats will pull together for the Chicago platform and its champions.

The differences in our ranks concern men more than they do principles and measures. Both candidates for the democratic gubernatorial nomination are strong silver men, and the populist candidate is on the same line. No candidate for the governorship or for congress will go before the people and advocate the gold standard policy. This feature of the situation speaks for itself.

fore the people and advocate the gold standard policy. This feature of the situation speaks for itself.

Silver in the South.

The other day we called attention to the fact that in South Carolina, Georgia, Arkansas and Alabama and in other southern states the democratic candidates for elective officers are all genuine bimetalists when they get on the stump before the people.

In South Carolina, where the strife between the democratic factions is more bitter than it is in any other state, there is practical unanimity on the silver question. The gubernatorial and senatorial candidates advocate the restoration of silver as standard money, and they favor the free coinage of both metals, without discrimination against either. This is so well understood that The Charleston News and Courier heads an account of a joint debate between Butler and Tillman with the following:

A Matter of Men, not Principles—Both Candidates Apparently on the Same Platform.

This admission must be inexpressibly mortifying to a paper tied to a national bank which has for years past fought silver with all its might. Despite its crusade against the white metal, The News and Courier now stands alone in South Carolina, and it is forced to recognize the fact that the present state campaign is "a matter of men, not principles," and that its gold standard arguments have failed to make enough converts to draw out a candidate who is willing to take up the fight against silver.

Our Charleston contemporary quotes Senator Butler as saying:

I advocate free coinage of silver because it will increase our currency.

Governor Tillman is equally outspoken, and it is impossible to read their speeches without coming to the conclusion that an anti-silver candidate in South Carolina would not be able to attract a corporal's guard of followers.

The South Carolina case is full of striking significance, because the two democratic factions have been trying to get as far apart as possible. They dare to differ about some things, but this important matter of silver cannot be trifled with, and the factions and their leaders are all standing on the bimetallic plank, while the candidates are shouting themselves hoarse for free silver.

The meaning of this is too plain to be mistaken. The south is determined to have the financial relief that is pledged in the Chicago platform, and the southern democrats in congress cannot count on the support of their people unless they are true to the silver plank. Some of the leaders may indulge in vague talk, but when they face the people they will speak out for silver in the most straightforward way. They will do this or they will be retired from public life. In the next congressional election the silver men of the south will sweep the field, if they pull together on this line. But if the democrats show a disposition to slight this great, controlling issue they may prepare for defeat in many districts in the fall elections.

Atlanta's Chautauqua.

The opening of the Atlanta Chautauqua at Ponce de Leon tonight should be largely attended.

The chautauqua is a home enterprise in which many of our best citizens are interested, and the object is to furnish a series of summer entertainments that will be pleasing and instructive.

A brilliant programme is announced for tonight, and the distinguished lecturers and the rare musical talent engaged for the occasion cannot fail to make the evening a delightful one. Ponce de Leon is a beautiful and breezy resort, just the place for the chautauqua, and the attractions presented should draw a large crowd.

Eastern Platform Views.

The New York Sun and other eastern newspapers that sometimes take occasion to lean freely toward democratic ideas have a good deal to say about the "democratic constitution," which is the large and flowing name they have given to the Chicago platform. A better name for it is "the constitution and the law of the party," but, after all, the name it goes by is of no consequence. We may call it what we please, and yet the attitude of The Sun and other eastern newspapers that lean to the platform one day and spurn it the next cannot be explained in ordinary terms.

Here is The Sun talking about "the democratic constitution" in the loudest and most fervid manner. The "democratic constitution" is so important that "the national convention alone has power to change it," and for that reason The Sun protests against the income tax. It asks if "the fundamental principles of democracy" as "proclaimed by the national convention," are "free to be overthrown by act of congress."

But when a real and vital pledge of the platform, such as that which declares that both gold and silver shall be the standard money of the country and that the mints shall be open to both metals on the same terms, comes up for consideration The Sun and other eastern democratic newspapers lean just as far away from the platform as John Sherman does.

What is sauce for the southern goose is very far from being sauce for the eastern gander. The income tax is not in the platform, but the horrible thing about it is that it compels the wealthy of the country to contribute their proportionate share to the support of the government. Consequently, to even speak about it in a loud voice is to violate the pledges of the platform.

On the other hand, the proposition to open the mints to silver, although it is a pledge of the platform, is even more horrible than the income tax, because it would have a tendency to cut off the profits of those who clip the coupons from government bonds, and who collect interest on mortgages. One moment the platform is the most precious affair ever known; the next its most vital pledge is a "glittering generality," woven like the spider's web to entrap and deceive. Today the platform is "the democratic constitution," embodying the fundamental principles of the party. Tomorrow it is a collection of Dead sea apples.

We advise the eastern democrats to get together and make up their minds as to the platform. What is it and what does it mean? If it is a breach of doctrine to introduce in congress a tax bill not mentioned in the democratic constitution, what sort of an offense is it to repudiate and ignore one of the vital pledges made in that constitution? Everywhere, in all parts of the country, information is wanted on this point.

The democratic newspapers of the east that are raising such a tempest in a teapot over the income tax should bear in mind the important fact that the income tax as a measure of raising revenue would never have been heard of in the present congress but for the concessions that the democratic tariff reformers in both houses were compelled to make to the demands of the monopolies and trusts represented by the eastern coalition of democrats and republicans organized to protect the interests of the gold trust, the sugar trust and the millionaire manufacturers.

What is most strange to all conservative citizens is the effort of these three protected monopolies to escape the results of a revenue deficit caused by concessions to their demands. Do they expect to eat their cake and have it, too? The true democratic policy was not concerned with levying an income tax when the party went into power. Such a tax was not discussed anywhere. The democratic tariff policy was the imposition of customs duties for revenue only. This meant, of course, the collection of a tax on such articles as would most readily yield a revenue to the government. The element of protection for protection's sake was to be entirely eliminated from the schedules, leaving the result of incidental protection to benefit manufacturers and wage-earners.

But in the very beginning the party found itself confronted by an eastern coalition of democrats and republicans too powerful to resist. The Wilson bill, as it came from the house was not a revenue bill. It was more protective in all its features than any measure the Randall democrats ever dreamed of, and more sectional—being a broadside attack on southern interests in the items of free iron, free lumber and free coal. Instead of providing for relieving the people of taxation it created an estimated deficit in the revenues of the government of $80,000,000. When the bill went to the house it was somewhat improved by judicious amendments. To protect the people in some degree, the income tax feature was added. It was the last resort of those democrats who stood for the interests of the taxpayers.

We are of the opinion that the east would do well to swallow the income tax and say nothing about it. In every other respect they have had as big a victory in manipulating the tariff bill as if John Sherman himself were the daddy of it.

Mr. Breckinridge, of Arkansas, says he will contest the result in two counties in his district. What Mr. Breckinridge should have done was to suppress his seven votes against silver before he cast them last August.

Nobody can tell what the row is about in South Carolina. All the candidates have the same views, drink (water) out of the same gourd, employ the same deeply-blue and violet-shaded metaphors, and stand in with the entire population—and still there is a row.

Eugene Field makes an eloquent protest against railroading murderers to the gallows because they have no money and few friends. This is a timely plea. There is no telling how soon some newspaper man may find himself environed by the fact that his hip-pocket has gone off accidentally and caused some worthy politician to commit involuntary suicide.

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

One of the liveliest swells about Washington is Prince Turbide, whose grandfather was emperor of Mexico 1851, and who was adopted by Emperor Maximilian and Empress Carlotta, who were denied children of their own and intended to make him their heir. His mother was a Georgetown woman and was married to his father when the latter was a student at the Catholic university there. The young prince is a handsome but dissipated fellow, and has been expelled from a large number of schools for losing $30,000 at bacarat in a single night.

Not long ago, with a party of chums, he went to Baltimore to play a game of pool with the grandson of old Governor Swann for $1,000 a side, and returning by the midnight train, they went to the Metropolitan Club to continue their diversion. They found the building closed, but routed out the watchman, lighted up the billiard room and the barroom and proceeded to make themselves merry, without regard to the rules of the institution. A good many glasses were smashed, and, as the breakfast time before the riot was over, then the governors of the club took up the case and those who participated in the fracas were called in to answer charges. All of them made humble and ample apologies and promised never to do so again, except young Turbide, who took the ground that a prince never apologizes and made no reply, whereupon the board promptly suspended him from the privileges of the club.

The common council of Chicago has adopted resolutions which will result in providing every child with free textbooks and remove the inability of a large percentage of our children to receive a common school education on account of their parents' financial circumstances. The board of education is requested to open the way for competition in the sale of schoolbooks by inviting bids from every book publishing establishment in the country, and if, after such bids are received, there appears to be a monopoly in the schoolbook trade, then the board of education is requested to establish its own printing plant, and publish all the books needed in the city public schools.

Captain Moore, of the ship Mary Gibbs, of Boston, tells a suggestive story of his last voyage to the gold coast of Africa. His cargo consisted of two women missionaries, who had been sent out to exert a civilizing influence on these heathen people. The vessel stopped at thirteen ports to unload the cargo of rum, which was received with wild enthusiasm by the natives, while nobody seemed to want the missionaries. The latter seemed to be unaffected by the effects of the rum. Before Captain Moore could learn what success they were having the Gibbs sailed for home.

JUST FROM GEORGIA.

A Watermelon Song.

O, the Georgia watermelon it's a-growin' cool an' green,
 An' it's soon be pullin' heavy on the stem;
 An' the knife it needs a whettin', an' the blade is gettin' keen,
 O, the Georgia watermelon is a gem!

Melons, cool an' green—
 Jest the best you ever seen!
 See the sweet juice drippin'
 From them melons cool an' green!

O, the Georgia watermelon, with the purtiest sort o' stripe!

It ain't a streak o' fat an' streak o' lean;
 You eat her with your fingers, an' you hear her answer: "Ripe!"

O, the Georgia watermelon, cool an' green!

Melons, cool an' green—

They're the best you ever seen!

How the juice comes drippin'

From them melons cool an' green!

When you pull a Georgia melon you must know what you are at An' look out how your knife is goin' in;

Put one side on this side o' you—the other half on that.

An' then, you git between 'em an' begin!

Melons, cool an' green—

They're the sweetest ever seen!

Nothin' like old Georgia.

With her melons cool an' green!

They're mighty—mighty fillin' with their flamin' hearts o' red—

Like the reddest o' the roses in the south!

When cotton's down to nothin', take the place o' meat an' bread—

Make you think a hive o' honey's in your mouth!

Melons, cool an' green—

Never nothin' like 'em seen!

How they satisfy you!

Them melons cool an' green!

But they're way ahead o' honey, as a slice or two will prove;

It's slicker an' it's sweeter as it slips;

There ain't no nigger problem when the melon's on the move—

Make the white man an' the nigger smack his lips!

Melons, cool an' green—

Don't want any better!

But I'd outlive all creation

Fer them melons cool an' green!

—FRANK L. STANTON.

Editor Cockerill, of The New York Morning Advertiser, should now take courage, and be happy—the Georgia watermelon, in all its satisfying sweetness, is on its way to the scorching north!

A Picture.

Summer clouds, as white as snow,
 In a sea o' blue!
 Goin' where the hot winds blow
 Over me an' you!

But while the sun comes brollin',
 They're good cause to complain:
 Their beauty he's a spoilin'
 By makin' 'em to rain!

Editor Lewis, of The Sparta Ichnaeite, doesn't do with a pencil, but a keen blade, dipped in the hottest red of this blazing June.

Make a Note Here.

The world wags on from day to day,
 In wisdom and in wit;
 No matter what the cynics say—
 Be sure you wag with it!

The Jackson Argus is one of the progressive Georgia weeklies, and its present editors and proprietors are keeping it well up to the high-water mark.

Signs of the Season.

The bloom is on the cotton,
 And the berry's turning black;
 And the candidate is walking In the Old Mule's Track!

John R. Glen is making an excellent weekly newspaper of The Clarksville Advertiser. The Advertiser was never as bright in its various departments as it is now.

That's What!

What was the platform made for?
 (Not much of it now remains!)
 But to have met him at the late Stone Mountain barbecue.

The thermometer is a guide for all aspiring young men—it rises early, and it rises often in this delightful weather.

The Asheville Daily Citizen is one of the brightest of North Carolina newspapers. Its columns are always crisp and well edited.

There seems to be no person living in whose breast so much hatred rankles as in that of Colonel Cockerill—Rome Tribune.

You ought to have met him at the late Stone Mountain barbecue.

Get Down to Business.

There ain't no use in wishin';
 That the trout was in your dish;
 The good Lord made the fishin',
 So, jest buy a line, an' fish!

The American Times-Recorder has a most vigorous editorial page, and much of the work thereon is done by Mrs. Marie Louise Myrick, one of the most talented of Georgia women.

ETCHED AND SKETCHED.

"A funny war incident occurred down there," said Mr. John W. Woodruff, pointing downward from the Forsyth street bridge to the track running between the bridge and the National hotel.

William Forrest, captured Colonel Straight's riders at Rome, they were brought to Atlanta in box cars and were switched off on that track. As Forrest's men had to return to Rome, a detail from Major Leyden's artillery, then in camp here, was sent down to guard the prisoners. I was a member of the company, and the facts of the case are fresh in my recollection yet. The doors on one side of the cars remained locked and the doors on the other side were open. In front of these doors one of Leyden's men stood on guard.

"Everything went along smoothly until the relief came round after dark. The officer in charge of the relief squad found, to his astonishment that one of the cars was guarded by a Yankee with a musket."

"Hello! What does this mean?" asked the officer.

"Oh, it's all right," replied the Yankee; "the young man on duty here wanted to go to see his girl, and he promised me his rifle if I would take his place till he came back."

"We took Mr. Yank's musket from him and made him enter the car, and stationed one of our men at the door. The fellow had told the truth, as we found out when the absent guard returned. The youngster was fresh and knew nothing about soldiering. He saw no harm in slipping off to see his girl, and as luck would have it, he had picked out a prisoner who was a man of his word."

"Our comrade would have been severely punished if his case had been reported, but the boys enjoyed the joke so much that they kept it from Major Leyden until it was safe to let it be known."

"Wouldn't that Yankee and his friend, the confederate, have a jolly time if they could meet at some reunion of the blue and gray? If they are both living they ought to get together."

The congressional committee of this district will meet in the senate chamber at the capitol this afternoon, for the purpose of fixing a date for the congressional convention. The meeting has been called for half-past 1 o'clock. Captain R. L. Barry, of DeKalb, is chairman of the committee, the other members being Messrs. Walker, of Monroe; Harris, of Newton; Broadnax, of Rockdale; Steadman, of DeKalb; Maddox, of Fulton; Hutchison, of Clayton; Robinson, of Campbell, and John James, of Douglas.

The death of Colonel Virgil Powers removes from the bouy politic a man who has been true to every trust that has been imposed upon him in a long list of offices. He was one of the most capable railroad men Georgia has ever known, and in the active service of railroads, as commissioner of the Southern Railway and Steamship Association and as member of the state railroad commission, he has at all times and under all circumstances proven true to every trust.

It may not be the best of good taste, but it is nevertheless a natural thing to be gossip about the filling of the vacancy caused by his death. Under the law, Colonel Powers's successor must be a practical railroad man. The law creating the commission provided that one of the commissioners must be a railroad man, and Colonel Powers has held that place. The position is a desirable one, and there will doubtless be a number of applicants; but it will be well for all to remember that none but railroad men need apply.

Everybody who was at any time thrown in business relations with Colonel Powers sincerely mourns his death.

"He was one of the few genuine Christians I have ever known," said Mr. Charles Sindall, who was for years secretary of the association and who has known Colonel Powers intimately for twenty years or more. "I mean one of the few whose lives are modeled after that of the Savior. A better man than Virgil Powers never lived. He was true to his true to his convictions, always true to himself, his wife was, I think, the most beautiful woman I have ever known. He was an ideal husband and father. About six years ago he and the good wife who is left to mourn his death, celebrated their golden wedding. Six children mourn his death, the youngest of whom, Mr. Drewry J. Powers, resides here and is in the Southern Railway and Steamship Association."

The news did not reach the capitol until yesterday afternoon. Colonel Powers was handed a telegram announcing it just as he was taking the train for his home in Marietta. He was deeply moved by it and spoke with deep affection of his associate, Judge Fort is at his home in Americus. Both will be well for all to remember that none but railroad men need apply.

Hon. A. O. Bacon and Judge Spencer Atkinson were here yesterday on their way home from Athens, where they have been busy, as trustees, with the affairs of the university. Major Bacon went on to Macon last night and Judge Atkinson to Brunswick.

"I feel," said Judge Atkinson, "that we have done good service to the state in our efforts to bring the university and the public schools into closer touch. The plan we have determined upon by which graduates of high schools of proper standing can enter the university without examination will, we believe, tend to cement the public schools and the university into closer relationship than has existed in the past. It is not lowering the standard of the university, you understand, but rather raising the standard of the public schools. The university belongs to the people of Georgia and we believe that the new move will have a tendency to impress the people more deeply than ever with the fact of their ownership."

Judge Atkinson expressed the opinion that there would be no trouble in Brunswick as a result of the supreme court's decision in the "Coke" case. "Of course what the court says is final," said he, "and I do not expect that any trouble will result from it."

THIS MAY MEAN MUCH

General Sam Thomas Made President of the New York and New England.

LOOKS LIKE A GREAT THROUGH LINE.

General Talk and Gossip About the Reorganization of Southern Lines. Other Railroad News.

With General Sam Thomas at the head of the New York and New England railroad and in control of the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia, it seems something more than probable that the reorganization of southern lines now in course of development means that Atlanta is to have a through line from Boston straight through to New Orleans.

This, at least, is the most interesting thing among the promises evolving out of the recent steps taken by the reorganizing the Richmond and Danville and the East Tennessee.

General Thomas has been chosen president of the New York and New England railroad, the strong line that binds New York and Boston. A significant point in this, too, is the fact that this is a Vanderbilt property.

This property has been bottled up lately and the men in charge thought General Thomas the best man to unravel the serious problems that confronted them. He is now at the head of the movement to reorganize the company, and, as is to be expected, is also among the leaders at work for the reorganization of the Richmond and Danville, the Cincinnati, the East Tennessee, the Georgia Pacific and the Georgia Central.

What does all this mean if not a great line of railroads from New England right on down the Piedmont section of the south to New Orleans?

This talk was commonly indulged in yesterday among local railroad men who are on the inside.

The following story comes from Cincinnati:

The reorganized New York and New England Railroad Company will have as its president General Sam Thomas. This information came to Cincinnati railroad managers yesterday from most reliable sources, and they are all agreed that it is the greatest piece of news that has come to the city recently. General Thomas is a man of great experience, and he is a native of New York.

General Thomas is the one who threw the Cincinnati, New Orleans and Port of Spain road into the hands of a receiver. At one time he was president of the East Tennessee and Georgia Railroad, and he is now at the head of the Louisville, New Albany and Chicago and Indiana Road, and he is also at the head of the Louisville, New Albany and Chicago and Indiana Road, and he is also at the head of the Louisville, New Albany and Chicago and Indiana Road.

It is not low university, but the standard of the university here is high, and we are well known in the university here. The plan we are carrying out is to have a more complete examination of the public schools, and we are well known in the university here.

The Cincinnati Enquirer has the following to say with regard to the outlook of the reorganization of the roads in the south that are to become the Southern Railway's property under the plans of the Drexel, Morgan &amp; Co. people.

The sale at Richmond, Va., last week of the Richmond and Danville road makes possible the proposed reorganization of lines in that territory under the name of the Southern Railway Company. The Georgia Pacific will be included in the new system, and the great system will extend from the Mississippi river on the west and the Ohio on the north to the Gulf of Mexico on the south, and it will include the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia, the New Orleans and Texas Pacific, the New Orleans and Mobile, and the New Orleans and Gulf of Mexico.

The thing that railroad managers seek is traffic. Coal and iron are the great sources to which this system must look for profit and maintenance. The Pennsylvania and Reading roads have developed in Pennsylvania coal regions, the Chesapeake and Ohio has brought the coal fields of the Virginia to the front, and the Louisville and Nashville, together with the Queen and Crescent, has been a great pioneer in the south, and now this new southern railway will become a mighty factor in the further development of the country through which it will run. It will be of incalculable benefit to Cincinnati and all other Ohio river commercial centers.

A Railroad Publication. The Seaboard Air-Line, by its advertising agent, Mr. Sam W. Bowman, has commenced the issue of a monthly publication entitled "The Vestibule," containing a complete novel every month. This is, indeed, a new departure in railroad advertising, and one that will be appreciated by every traveler. The country has been long in need of advertising matter by transportation companies containing descriptions of various routes and resources, and the new publication, with a complete story in every issue by well-known authors, and a complete and authoritative list of the passenger agents of the system will meet with popular favor.

That Cumberland Rate. In the discussion of the refusal to allow the Gate City Guard a special rate to Cumberland Island over the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia much has been said in the newspapers that ought not to have been said with respect to the alleged stubbornness of the Central.

It is not true that the Central was the only road that kicked against the issue of these cheap tickets by the East Tennessee people. Speaking of the story that appeared in The Constitution yesterday along this line, Division Passenger Agent J. W. Smith of the East Tennessee, corrects the report as follows: "The article did Mr. Hall's injustice," said he yesterday. "The Central was not the only road that objected to the rate, and Mr. Hall, no doubt, had good reasons for his objections, as did other officials. Requests for concurrence in rates are not sent to all lines connected with the Southern Passenger Association, but simply to those in which the rate applied for would affect."

"My refusal," continued Mr. Farnsworth, "to Mr. Hall's application for Saturday night rates to Tybee, was not because he refused to agree to the rate for the Gate City Guard, but because we thought it too early in the season to place such rates in effect. We will meet Mr. Hall at an early date, when, no doubt, such an understanding may be reached as will give Atlanta the benefit of cheap Saturday night rates to Tybee, Cumberland and St. Simon's Island. Mr. Hall and I are the best of friends and there is no issue between us."

"MASCOTTE" TONIGHT. Tonight "Mascotte" will be sung at the Elwood Avenue theater, with every member of the company in the cast.

"Mascotte" has long been a favorite with lovers of comic opera, and with such a cast as will present it tonight will doubtless retain its hold on the Atlanta public. Comedian Oscar Girard has fully recovered from his recent illness and will be on hand. Then, too, Herbert Mathews will be there with him, and these two funny and favorite comedians will extract plenty of mirth from the amusing situations that are afforded them. "Mascotte" gives abundant opportunities for clever comedians.

Miss Randall, Miss Benoit, Miss Emily Sanford, Miss McCreary, Miss McCreary and Miss Bell will be in the cast, with a full chorus.

The third performance of "Patience" last night was seen by an audience fully as large as any of the week.

ing their forces with the Knights of Labor and the American Railway Union. T. J. McGuire, a member of the general executive board of the knights, was in Chicago yesterday and held a brief conference on the subject with President Debs. The agreement soon to be entered into between these three great organizations, whose united forces will number 1,500,000 citizens of the United States at the end of the current year, has for its primary object the formation of a party for independent political action. As an indication of this determination, the general officers of the American Railway Union will send representatives to a convention to be held at the capitol building in Springfield, Ill., July 22, 23 and 24th.

DIE GLUECKLICHE TURNER.

Kommen Heute Morgen zu Hause von Memphis mit Den Krans.

Memphis, Tenn., June 20.—(Special.)—The Atlanta Turners are tired. They are yearning for home. All day they have been lionized, feasted and banqueted, and it was impossible for them to respond to all the invitations extended them, both to private and public houses. Fancy made a speech and carried the drinking horn gracefully. Theodore, the pedantic, got off on a quiet hunt. Dr. Zwickel cracked a joke, and Louis, the gentle, became enthused and actually lashed his man in fencing. Gus, the silent, was the pet of the ladies. Luke, the wrestler, is stuck on Memphis, but not on the umpire. Carl, the invincible jumper, the fastest, is wanting another chance at them, and Westmeister, the ancient, is wearing out his shoes looking for Cook's beer. The above aggregation will arrive in Atlanta Thursday at 11:45 o'clock a. m. on the Georgia Pacific.

A TRIUMPHANT RECEPTION

Will Be Tendered the Contestants of the Atlanta Turn Verein.

In the handsome hall on Marietta street the Atlanta Turn Verein held an enthusiastic meeting last night. The main object of the meeting was to make arrangements for the reception of the delegates who represented Atlanta at the convention of the Turn Verein, which was held in Chicago last week. It was decided that the whole society should turn out this morning and give the victorious class a warm reception. At least 100 members will be on hand when the train bearing the delegates rolls in at 11:45 o'clock. They will form in line at the carshed, and to the stirring music of the Fifth Regiment band, parade the principle streets of the city.

Then the doors of the society hall will be thrown open and a reception of a rousing nature will be in order.

At half-past 1 o'clock a banquet will be spread at the Hotel Westminster and the victory of the Atlanta Turners celebrated in great shape.

When the news came yesterday of the successful outcome of the Memphis contest the enthusiasm and rejoicing among the members of the society was great. Last night's meeting was called and the members began at once to make preparations for today's program. The Atlanta Turn Verein is a society of German-Americans, and it is now the largest of its kind in the city.

The Atlanta Turn Verein is a society of German-Americans, and it is now the largest of its kind in the city.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Told in Short, Interesting Paragraphs for the Hurried Reader.

A CHURCH FETTERED.—The Ladies' Aid Society of the Capitol Avenue Baptist church, corner Capitol and Georgia avenues, will give an ice cream festival on the grounds in front of the church on Friday evening, the 23d, from 6 to 10 o'clock. Benefit Boys' Brigade.

TORRENCE KIGHT.—Recently a notice appeared in The Constitution referring to the large number of people being sent to Cumberland Island from this city. It was stated that these people were secured through the solicitation of Mr. C. N. Kight, Jr. There is no such person as C. N. Kight, Jr. It was Mr. Torrence Kight, formerly connected with the Cotton Belt route, but now representing Hotel Cumberland.

WILL HOLD NO INQUEST.—Coroner Paden has decided that he will hold no inquest over the remains of the infant found under Dr. Gardner's residence, on Marietta street, last Saturday. In fact, he did not know how to proceed about the matter, and the body of the infant was in such an advanced stage of decay that he could do nothing about how it had met its death.

AN ENTERTAINMENT TONIGHT.—The young ladies and gentlemen of the Third Baptist church will give a musical and musical entertainment at the residence of Mr. J. B. Harris, 69 McAdams street, tonight, for the benefit of the church. Interesting features are on the program, and a delightful time is promised.

A HAPPY EVENING.—The regular fortnightly meeting of the West End Literary Circle was held at the residence of Rev. E. M. Christian last evening at 8 o'clock. The program was rendered. The works of Miss Minnie Quinn, Atlanta's bright poetess, were considered, and the author was read by Major Charles Hubner. Recitations and refreshments followed.

AN ORDER GRANTED.—An order was passed by Judge Lilly yesterday allowing W. W. Everett, attorney for the T. T. Haycock Carriage Company, to remove from the premises of the Haycock Carriage Company, of Atlanta, and which were consigned to the Consolidated Wagon and Buggy Company, of Atlanta, and which were recently placed in the hands of a receiver.

DR. CHILDERS SICK.—Dr. W. A. Childers is dangerously ill at his home on Ponders avenue.

A ROOF BURNED.—There was an alarm of fire from box 82, on Capitol avenue at 9:30 o'clock last night. A fire-van cottage on Pulliam street, near Clarke, had caught on the roof, but the firemen put out the flames without great damage.

TO GET THEIR TICKETS.—The members of the chautauqua chorus who have not received their tickets will please call at the Frey &amp; Bradley Company music store, today, between 10 and 11 o'clock.

Awarded Highest Honors—World's Fair.

DR. ROSE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER. MOST PERFECT MADE. A pure Grape Cream of Tartar Powder. Free from Ammonia, Alum or any other adulterant. 40 YEARS THE STANDARD.

A BIG SUCCESS

Was the Exposition Entertainment Out at Fort McPherson.

CAPTAIN HUMPHREYS IS A WONDER.

Truly Rivaling the Great Hermann Him self-Notes and News from the World of Society.

The entertainment given last evening in the mess hall at Fort McPherson, by Captain Humphreys, for the honor of the woman's building, was a very brilliant and delightful one. At half past 7 o'clock a special train on the Central left the city filled with a gay and fashionable throng and this was added to by an equally large party, which came out on the electric cars or in private vehicles.

The hall was made bright and attractive and the large assemblage was a representative one of Atlanta's best people.

A charming little stage with bright drapery erected and upon this Captain Humphreys appeared and performed a great many of those magical tricks that have proved him to be a master of legende-maine. Indeed, it was wonderful to see how any one not daily carrying on such a profession could be so expert and so graceful as was the gallant captain.

His feats were quite as wonderful and as deftly and marvelously managed as are those of Hermann himself. He received a great deal of applause, for there is nothing that wins attention and enthusiasm more successfully than a clever performance of this kind. His Indian box trick was particularly good, and his performance was indeed a wonder.

The Third Artillery band furnished delightful music and the gallant officers of the Third were unremitting in their attention to the comforts of their friends from the city.

All the ladies interested in the exposition appreciated sincerely Captain Humphreys's entertainment, and they all agreed that he felt delighted over its success. The trouble he went to for the affair was no small matter and in the arrangement of the hall and stage he was ably assisted by several of the officers of the Third.

It was to be hoped that the ladies and officers at the fort will continue to take an interest in the exposition, for they will add in their work a charming social element and one that will greatly accentuate the broad, cosmopolitan interests of our great prospective fair.

Mr. T. S. Hawes, one of the brightest, as well as the most popular young man of Emory, is in the city on his way home to Blairbridge, Ga.

Miss Vanlee Johnson and Mrs. H. G. Hawes, two very attractive ladies, have been visiting friends in the city, left for their homes in Nashville, Tenn., yesterday.

At the executive mansion the regular monthly meeting of the Fulton County Educational Loan Association for the girls' school at Milledgeville was held yesterday.

The meeting was largely attended, and great interest in the work was manifested. Seven young girls who had been the beneficiaries of the loan during the past year were in attendance, presenting an impressive object lesson, which touched the heart of every woman who realized that the loan association would enable those girls to support themselves, and those depending upon them.

The annual election of officers resulted in the selection of: Mrs. William Northern, president; Mrs. C. E. McAdams, first vice president; Mrs. D. M. Evans, third vice president; Mrs. E. L. Connelly, treasurer; Mrs. M. E. McAdams, secretary; Mrs. J. Jefferson Thomas, Mrs. Stanhope Sams, assistants; Mrs. Matt. Harrison, first school district president; Mrs. C. E. Doane, second school district president; Mrs. J. S. Sutters, third school district president; Mrs. Thomas Moore, fourth school district president; Miss Annie Smith, fifth school district president; executive committee, Mrs. M. E. McAdams, Mrs. H. H. Smith, Mrs. W. C. Warner, Mrs. J. G. Oglesby.

Mrs. E. P. Chamberlin left the city yesterday for a two weeks' visit to relatives in Paris, Ky.

Miss Beale Green, a charming young lady of Washington, Ga., is the guest of her cousin, Miss Lillian Simmons, at 69 East Ellis street.

Mrs. A. S. J. McRae, who has been a guest for several days of Dr. F. Barlow McRae's family on Courtland avenue, has returned to McRae, Ga., her home.

Misses Laurie and Lucile McRae, daughters of Dr. F. Barlow McRae, are visiting relatives at Lumber City and McRae.

Arrangements have been made by which the Lilly land, under the direction of Professor Lilly, will play during the summer season at the Sweetwater Park hotel at Lithia Springs. The first concert will be given tonight at the hotel, and during the summer the orchestra will furnish the music for the ample ballroom. A feature of the musical entertainment of the place will be the park concerts in the grove in front of the hotel. Professor Lilly's orchestra is too well known to the people of Atlanta to need commendation, and it has been secured by the management of the Sweetwater Park hotel for the season's sufficient assurance to those who will spend their vacation at that charming spot that they will lack nothing in musical entertainment.

The many friends of Miss Alice L. Stephens, a charming and cultured young lady of this city, who has been attending Centenary college, Cleveland, Tenn., during the past year, are welcoming her home. Miss Stephens was one of the brightest and most popular scholars attending the Centenary last term, where her friends were glad to see her.

The management of the Capital City Club, ever looking to the pleasure and enjoyment of its members, has arranged a series of fortnightly orchestral concerts during the summer months. The first of these entertainments will be given next Friday evening at 8:30 o'clock.

On the wide verandas will be arranged comfortable chairs and small tables where punch and light refreshments will be served. The ballroom will also be opened to those wishing to while the time away dancing.

These entertainments are given by the club entirely complimentary to its members and their lady friends, and promise to add much pleasure to the many dull evenings of the coming summer.

A musical entertainment will be given at East End academy this Thursday evening, June 21st, for the benefit of Beach Spring Baptist church. The ladies have prepared an excellent program.

Nashville, Tenn., June 20.—(Special.)—At the residence of the bride, tonight, occurred a wedding that united two of the oldest and most prominent families in the state. Mr. Albert J. Marks, son of the late Governor A. S. Marks, and Miss Dora Jackson, daughter of General W. H. Jackson, were the contracting parties. While the wedding was quiet and unostentatious, the performance of near relatives were present, the marriage was a notable one. Bishop Thomas Gailor, of the Episcopal church, performed the ceremony. After a short visit to Tennessee relatives, they sail for a summer tour of Europe on the Trave July 2d.

WANTED.—The ladies of Atlanta to see the display of embroideries Thursday and Friday, June 21st and 22d, at the Grand fourth floor.

ONLY FIVE DAYS NOW

Will Be Allowed the License Taxpayers of the City.

JULY 5TH IS THE LIMIT THIS YEAR.

Taxes Fall Due July 1st—Only a Few Changes Made This Year in the Schedule of Taxes.

The business license taxes of the city will fall due July 1st, and this year only five days will be allowed in which to pay them.

Heretofore ten days have been allowed the taxpayers. The sessions of the school will be held in old Rock college and all of the branches will be taught.

No tuition will be charged and board can be secured at the college at the low rate of $3 a week. The school is an institution of the state designed for the better equipment of teachers to perform their work of teaching the young intellects of Georgia. A number of Atlanta teachers will attend the summer session of the schools.

A DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.

Eight Cottages in the Southern Part of the City Burn.

The disastrous fire at Reynoldstown at 1 o'clock in the morning by a destructive blaze just beyond the city limits, in Pittsburgh.

The fire department was called out by telephone, and when the scene of the conflagration was reached, after a long run, the firemen found it was a stubborn fire they had to fight. They had considerable difficulty in stretching a line of hose, but when they once got water on the burning buildings they fought like heroes.

Eight residences, located on McDaniel street, were burned before the firemen could conquer the flames. The loss was about $5,000, with insurance amounting to $3,200. The buildings were all owned by Mr. J. M. Stewart, the Peachtree street beef market man.

An alarm of fire from box 223 called the firemen out on Mangum street yesterday afternoon about 2:30 o'clock. No damage was done.

OFF TO THE MOUNTAINS.

Judge Newman Leaves for Virginia.

Will Return for McCandless's Case. His Honor Judge William T. Newman left last night for the mountains of Virginia, where he will spend the next two weeks.

Under the argument raised by him the question of once the tax upon the agents as well as the local coal dealers, but subsequently reconsidered their former action, and after Mr. Dimmock left the hall, removed the tax on the agents from the coal mines. Thus, the law will stand as it has been all along in this case.

Further than these trifling changes the ordinance was passed very much in the same shape it was last year and as it has been for a number of years past.

There were, perhaps, fewer changes made in the schedule of business taxes this year than have ever been made before.

AT THE NORMAL SCHOOL.

Professor L. M. Landrum Will Have the Department of Mathematics.

Professor L. M. Landrum will be in charge of the department of mathematics at the Georgia state normal school, which opens on the 5th of July in the Classic City.

In the selection of Professor Landrum to fill this important chain the highest interests of the school will be promoted. Professor Landrum is a ripe scholar and has a genius for mathematics which places him among the most distinguished mathematicians of the state. Several months ago a difficult problem, which puzzled a great many teachers, was presented to Professor Landrum for solution. Without apparently much thought he proceeded to work the example and to find the proper answer. The problem had been a mountain of labor to many of the teachers who were not able to solve it.

The normal school will remain in session

"MY CLOTHIER"

Rosenfeld

OF COURSE

ATLANTA, GA.

Don't You Think

it more satisfactory to buy an article that you know will wear well, even at a trifling difference of cost, than to buy that which is an uncertain quality, for the sake of apparently saving a few cents? If you buy clothes here, the quality is assured, and you save money in the long run. Long coats and short prices prevail here now.

Negligee shirts? Just try us!

Henry L. Rosenfeld,

24 Whitehall St., Cor. Alabama.

Worth $10.00

Worth $12.50

Worth $13.50

At.....

$6.90

We shall continue the above sale for a few days and intensify interest by adding another line of Suits just received.

Worth $16.00

Worth $17.50

Worth $20.00

At.....

$12.90

These two lots have never been paralleled in the south so far as real value is concerned. Come in and examine.

Eiseman Bros.

WASHINGTON, D. C. ATLANTA, GA. BALTIMORE, MD.

ONLY MANUFACTURERS OF CLOTHING IN THE SOUTH DEALING DIRECT WITH CONSUMER.

No Branch House in the City.

For Rheumatism use

Germetuer.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

AT WHOLESALE BY THE TRADE GENERALLY.

for six weeks and will give instruction to all of the teachers of Georgia who desire to attend. The sessions of the school will be held in old Rock college and all of the branches will be taught.

No tuition will be charged and board can be secured at the college at the low rate of $3 a week. The school is an institution of the state designed for the better equipment of teachers to perform their work of teaching the young intellects of Georgia. A number of Atlanta teachers will attend the summer session of the schools.

THE BRIDE RETURNS.

After a Year's Absence She Gladly Her Husband's Heart by Returning.

The pretty young bride of the cornet player of the Third Artillery band has returned to her husband after a year's absence in Baltimore.

She was carried away from him at Fort McPherson nearly a year ago, and the bride was heart-broken. He appealed to the police and to the courts to give him back his bride and even went so far as to institute legal action against her father, whom he accused of being responsible for her disappearance.

His efforts availed nothing and he had to accept his desertion philosophically. Yesterday morning, just as the reveille sounded, the young wife walked into the fort. She was joyfully welcomed by her youthful husband, who has been pining for her since she left.

They received congratulations all day long.

Removal of an Extension.

Columbia, S. C., June 20.—(Special.)—It is stated here tonight that the Carolina, Cumberland Gap and Chicago will at once extend its line from Edgefield, S. C., to Greenwood, S. C., where it connects with the Seaboard Air-Line system.

Best Equipped Establishment in the South, Requiring Over 15,000 Feet of Space.

Chas. P. Byrd

8 SOUTH BROAD ST.

PUBLISHER

PRINTER

ENGRAVER

SPECIAL FACILITIES FOR

Book and Pamphlet Work, Illustrated Catalogues, Office Stationery, Periodicals, Etc.

Another Feature.

During the last week we have been selling Men's All-Wool Suits, made at our own factory in the best manner by the best workmen,

Worth $10.00

Worth $12.50

Worth $13.50

At.....

$6.90

We shall continue the above sale for a few days and intensify interest by adding another line of Suits just received.

Worth $16.00

Worth $17.50

Worth $20.00

At.....

$12.90

These two lots have never been paralleled in the south so far as real value is concerned. Come in and examine.

Eiseman Bros.

WASHINGTON, D. C. ATLANTA, GA. BALTIMORE, MD.

ONLY MANUFACTURERS OF CLOTHING IN THE SOUTH DEALING DIRECT WITH CONSUMER.

No Branch House in the City.

For Rheumatism use

Germetuer.

TO BE TRIED TODAY.

John Laceywell to Be Given a Preliminary Hearing This Morning.

HE HAS SECURED TWO ATTORNEYS

And Seems Very Hopeful—Patrolman Barrett Says There's Something Back of the Tragedy That Hasn't Been Told Yet.

John Laceywell, who exerted his best efforts to kill Patrolman Barrett, will be given a preliminary hearing this morning at 10 o'clock. It has not yet been decided whether justice the hearing will be had.

There are two warrants against Laceywell, one for assault with intent to murder, and one for carrying concealed weapons. The last will probably not be pushed and the trial today will be on the more serious charge.

Laceywell has lost none of his cheerfulness since he has been in the police station. He is as hopeful as he ever was. The first hour he was put behind the bars he turned his eyes toward the future, and employed attorneys to secure the best possible showing for him. His attorneys are Colonel W. C. Glenn and Mr. Heywood. They called at police headquarters yesterday afternoon and had a talk with Laceywell. He was perceptibly pleased when they told him that there was a prospect of his getting a trial today. He chatted with them in the most matter-of-fact style, and occasionally laughed heartily.

While Laceywell's attorneys were talking with him, Patrolman Barrett was at police headquarters. His face was nearly hidden with bandages, but he was otherwise all right. His voice is thick and changed, but he talks without great difficulty. He says the ball plowed into his chest under his tongue. Barrett thinks that there is something back of the shooting that no one has heard of yet. Said he yesterday: "I don't know what it is, but I think there is something back of the shooting that no one has heard of yet. I don't think much of it, and haven't said anything about it. I was going to be shot. Why he did it is a mystery, but he had some reason."

At the trial, today Laceywell may tell something that he has not yet told. But it is hardly probable. He has a way of talking out just what he thinks, and covered all the ground in his statements concerning the trouble.

Weather Synopsis and Forecast.

In the Missouri and Mississippi valleys, and in the western portion of the United States, the temperature during yesterday was somewhat higher than on Tuesday, while in all other sections it remained about stationary. General rains fell during the day over the entire Gulf states and at a few places in the Mississippi valley and showers occurred in Georgia, North Carolina, Virginia, Ohio, Nebraska and Minnesota. Except in the Mississippi valley, the weather was generally cloudy. The hot wave which was prevalent during Tuesday in the northwest has spread to the eastward as far as Missouri, the current temperature at St. Louis at 10 o'clock p. m. last night being as high as 90 degrees, while in the afternoon the thermometer registered 90 degrees. The temperature at Atlanta yesterday was 81 degrees, which was 4 degrees warmer than on Tuesday.

For Georgia, fair, no decided change in temperature.

Local Report for June 20, 1894.

Mean daily temperature, 76.
Highest in twenty-four hours, 87.
Lowest in twenty-four hours, 66.
Rainfall during twenty-four hours 7 p. m. 0.
Deficiency of rainfall since January 1st, 3.11.

Weather Bulletin.

June 20, 1894.

STATIONS AND STATE OF WEATHER.

Barometric Pressure.	Wind Velocity.	Rainfall in Past 12 Hours.	Maximum Temperature.
SOUTHEAST—
Atlanta, Ga., cloudy.	30.05 (80) 1.00	88	88
Charlotte, N. C., rain.	30.10 (72) 1.42	90	90
Jacksonville, Fla., pt. cloudy.	30.14 (81) 6.14	88	88
Knoxville, Tenn., clear.	30.18 (80) 1.00	88	88
Mobile, Ala., cloudy.	30.10 (80) 1.00	88	88
Montgomery, Ala., cloudy.	30.10 (78) 6.01	88	88
Pensacola, Fla., cloudy.	30.10 (78) 12.00	88	88
Tampa, Fla., cloudy.	30.12 (74) 1.16	89	89
Wilmington, N. C., cloudy.	30.18 (74) 8.18	84	84
SOUTHWEST—
Corpus Christi, Tex., pt. cloudy.	30.28 (82) 28.02	84	84
Fort Smith, Ark., clear.	30.28 (82) 28.02	84	84
Galveston, Tex., clear.	30.06 (80) 1.00	84	84
Memphis, Tenn., pt. cloudy.	30.06 (84) 1.00	84	84
Meridian, Miss., cloudy.	30.06 (80) 1.00	84	84
New Orleans, La., cloudy.	30.10 (78) 1.12	84	84
Palestine, Tex., clear.	30.02 (82) 6.71	90	90
San Antonio, Tex., clear.	30.06 (80) 1.00	84	84
Vicksburg, Miss., cloudy.	30.04 (78) 1.01	86	86
NORTHEAST—
Baltimore, Md., clear.	30.04 (80) 1.00	88	88
Buffalo, N. Y., clear.	30.06 (80) 1.00	88	88
Cincinnati, O., cloudy.	30.05 (72) 6.71	86	86
Cleveland, Mich., clear.	30.04 (78) 1.00	88	88
Lynchburg, Va., cloudy.	30.06 (80) 1.00	88	88
New York, N. Y., cloudy.	30.06 (80) 1.00	88	88
Norfolk, Va., pt. cloudy.	30.06 (78) 1.54	88	88
NORTHWEST—
Chicago, Ill., cloudy.	29.98 (80) 1.00	84	84
Huron, S. D., pt. cloudy.	29.72 (80) 24.00	80	80
Kansas City, Mo., pt. cloudy.	29.94 (86) 1.00	84	84
Omaha, Neb., clear.	29.94 (86) 1.00	84	84
St. Louis, Mo., clear.	29.94 (86) 1.00	84	84
St. Paul, Minn., clear.	29.78 (70) 12.14	94	94

Makes dyspeptics laugh!

Brown's Iron Bitters.

A Summer in the North.

A description of hundreds of the charming lakes and pleasure resorts of the north, northwest and west, the best route or routes by which they are reached, together with a list of hotels and boarding houses, the names of the proprietors and the rates per day and per week, and all information contained in a handsome publication entitled "Hints to Tourists," recently issued by the Chicago and Northwestern railway, by the Chicago and Northern Pacific railway, upon application to W. A. Thrall, general passenger and ticket agent, Chicago, Ill. June 2-1 m o d

A Summer in the North.

A description of hundreds of the charming lakes and pleasure resorts of the north, northwest and west, the best route or routes by which they are reached, together with a list of hotels and boarding houses, the names of the proprietors and the rates per day and per week, and all information contained in a handsome publication entitled "Hints to Tourists," recently issued by the Chicago and Northwestern railway, by the Chicago and Northern Pacific railway, upon application to W. A. Thrall, general passenger and ticket agent, Chicago, Ill. June 2-1 m o d

THE RUSH CONTINUES

At Crutcher's.

Since R. S. Crutcher & Co. moved into their mammoth store, 32 Peachtree street, the rush for furniture at cut prices has been something unusual. They have the goods and the space to show them, and their motto is always fine furniture at all kinds at cut prices.

If it is furniture you want, Crutcher's is the place to go.

"Are You Going Off This Summer?"

If so, you had better take an accident policy on with the United States Mutual Accident Association for $1000 death benefit only $8 for three months. These policies cover you while yachting, fishing, boating, bicycling, base-balling and all such sports, and injuries so sustained will always be paid full benefits. James T. Prince, Southern Manager, 700 Equitable building, Atlanta, Ga.

Smith's Worm Oil is safe, sure and pleasant.

THEY HAVE ADJOURNED 'TILL JULY.

The Insurance Men After a Busy Session of Routine Work Break Away.

The meeting of the executive committee of the Southeastern Tariff Association yesterday turned out considerable routine work, but nothing of particular interest to the outside world.

The new officers recently elected at the regular annual meeting of the association held in Washington were inaugurated and became the power behind the throne of the organization of insurance men in this section of the country.

The members of the committee are as follows:

Thomas Eggleston, president; George W. Dewey, vice president; Charles C. Fleming, secretary. The officers of the association, who are ex-officio members of the executive committee, are A. B. Andrews, W. E. Chapman, Charles E. Doss, John W. Pearce, H. E. Rees, W. L. Reynolds, S. Y. Tupper, John C. Whitely, of Atlanta; J. C. Hunter, North Carolina; J. B. Ezell, South Carolina; Edgar S. Wilson, Georgia; J. C. Hunter, Alabama; Crosby Dawkins, Florida; McCarran, Mississippi; Clarence F. Low, Louisiana; L. R. Warren, Virginia.

The work of shaping plans for legislation was referred to a special committee, which will report later. It is thought that the work will be in accordance with the views expressed by the members at the late meeting in Washington along this line.

The Southeastern Tariff Association was never in better shape than now. It is a strong organization of insurance men and is doing a vast amount of good to the insurance business of this section of the country. The losses last year in the territory of the southeastern averaged only 54 per cent, while those of the northern territory ran up to 67 per cent.

The Southeastern Association covers nine states of the union, reaching from Texas to Virginia, with the exception of Arkansas. It is growing stronger every day and is doing much to advance the interests of insurance men throughout this region of the country.

SHE WANTS DAMAGES.

Cornelia Johnson Enters Suit Against the Atlanta Traction Company.

Cornelia Johnson, one of the colored picnicers who was injured in the recent collision near Decatur, wants $5,000 damages from the Atlanta Traction Company.

Yesterday an intervention was filed in the United States court to that effect. The extent of her injuries was set forth in the intervention as follows:

"She was injured, bruised and contused on her right side, her left knee and knee-cap were bruised and contused. She was bruised, lacerated and shocked internally, her lungs and pulmonary tissues were lacerated and engorged and her whole system shocked."

This is the eighth intervention against the Traction Company resulting from the Decatur collision, and all of them sue for from $1,000 to $5,000.

LEMON ELIXIR.

A Pleasant Lemon Tonic.

For Biliuness, Constipation and Malnutrition.

For Indigestion, Sick and Nervous Headaches.

For Sleeplessness, Nervousness and Heart Diseases.

For Fever, Chills, Debility and Kidney Diseases, take Lemon Elixir.

Dr. Mozier's Lemon Elixir is prepared from the fresh juice of lemon, combined with other vegetable liver tonics, and will not fail you in any of the above named diseases. Fifty cents and $1 bottles at druggists.

Prepared only by Dr. H. Mozier, Atlanta, Ga.

A Card.

For nervous and sick headaches, indigestion, biliousness and constipation, of which I have been a great sufferer, I have never found a medicine that would give such pleasant and permanent relief as Dr. H. Mozier's Lemon Elixir.

Publisher Morning Call, Griffin, Ga.

1. Consider "Smith's Worm Oil," the best worm medicine sold. It is infallible, never failing to bring the worms, and I always prefer it to anything else. It is a God-send to the public.

M. C. MARTIN, M. D.

Two for One.

Nothing but our willingness to pay cash in these hard times enables us to put such good stuff into these $13.25 suits. For the usual price of one custom suit to your order we will cut you TWO.

Plymouth Rock Pants

70 Whitehall Street.

Don't Miss This.

The Original and Genuine (WORCESTERSHIRE) LEA & PERRINS' SAUCE

Imparts the most delicious taste and zest to SOUPS, GRAVIES, FISH, MEATS, GAME, WELSH-CAEBISITS, &c.

Imparts the most delicious taste and zest to SOUPS, GRAVIES, FISH, MEATS, GAME, WELSH-CAEBISITS, &c.

Imparts the most delicious taste and zest to SOUPS, GRAVIES, FISH, MEATS, GAME, WELSH-CAEBISITS, &c.

Imparts the most delicious taste and zest to SOUPS, GRAVIES, FISH, MEATS, GAME, WELSH-CAEBISITS, &c.

Imparts the most delicious taste and zest to SOUPS, GRAVIES, FISH, MEATS, GAME, WELSH-CAEBISITS, &c.

Imparts the most delicious taste and zest to SOUPS, GRAVIES, FISH, MEATS, GAME, WELSH-CAEBISITS, &c.

Imparts the most delicious taste and zest to SOUPS, GRAVIES, FISH, MEATS, GAME, WELSH-CAEBISITS, &c.

Imparts the most delicious taste and zest to SOUPS, GRAVIES, FISH, MEATS, GAME, WELSH-CAEBISITS, &c.

Imparts the most delicious taste and zest to SOUPS, GRAVIES, FISH, MEATS, GAME, WELSH-CAEBISITS, &c.

Imparts the most delicious taste and zest to SOUPS, GRAVIES, FISH, MEATS, GAME, WELSH-CAEBISITS, &c.

Imparts the most delicious taste and zest to SOUPS, GRAVIES, FISH, MEATS, GAME, WELSH-CAEBISITS, &c.

Imparts the most delicious taste and zest to SOUPS, GRAVIES, FISH, MEATS, GAME, WELSH-CAEBISITS, &c.

Imparts the most delicious taste and zest to SOUPS, GRAVIES, FISH, MEATS, GAME, WELSH-CAEBISITS, &c.

Imparts the most delicious taste and zest to SOUPS, GRAVIES, FISH, MEATS, GAME, WELSH-CAEBISITS, &c.

CHAMBERLIN, JOHNSON &amp; CO.

GREAT CLOSING SALE OF ## DRY GOODS. CARPETS. FURNITURE. SHOES.

As is well known by our customers, we take an inventory twice a year—January and July. This season we find more short lengths and patterns hanging than we care to take over, and we have decided to clear out for cost and less all these, and should you need a dress, now is the time. Come and get choice for cost and less.

Also in Carpets we have a large lot in the very best weaves and latest styles that are in lengths too short for large rooms; hence, they must go at cost and less; also made rugs and remnants, odd Portieres, Curtains, etc. See and price with us for Awnings. We use the best material and guarantee our work. Come and see for yourself.

In Furniture we have certainly the largest stock and the lowest prices. We simply defy competition in Bedroom and Parlor Goods, and all you have to do is to examine the quality and prices everywhere and come to us and buy. We have too much Furniture on hand and will endeavor to reduce stock in order to save taking.

Tan Bluchers for Boys $3. Sizes 1 to 6. Just received.

Misses' and Children's Oxfords and Strap Slippers, the most complete line in the city.

Odd lines are going at bargains. These are fine goods.

Ladies' Undressed Kid Oxfords, all colors, at $2.50 pair.

For Shoes that will fit and wear at the lowest possible prices see our stock.

Chamberlin, Johnson & Co. Chamberlin, Johnson & Co. Chamberlin, Johnson & Co.

Direct Passenger Steamer FROM PORT ROYAL, SOUTH CAROLINA, TO LIVERPOOL, ENGLAND.

"The Port Royal Shipping Company (limited) will, on July 5th, clear the fast passenger steamship, Bernard Hall, 4,000 tons capacity, of the West India and Pacific steamship line, for Liverpool, Eng. Handsome and commodious saloon accommodations and excellent table. The following are saloon fares from the pints named:

FROM ATLANTA, GA. FARE

Atlanta, Ga. to Liverpool, Eng. 62.40

Athens, Ga. to Liverpool, Eng. 58.90

Birmingham, Ala. to Liverpool, Eng. 58.90

Chattanooga, Tenn. to Liverpool, Eng. 58.90

Selma, Ala. to Liverpool, Eng. 58.90

Montgomery, Ala. to Liverpool, Eng. 58.90

Anniston, Ala. to Liverpool, Eng. 58.90

Rome, Ga. to Liverpool, Eng. 58.90

Nashville, Tenn. to Liverpool, Eng. 58.90

Macon, Ga. to Liverpool, Eng. 58.90

Port Royal, S. C. to Liverpool, Eng. 58.90

Memphis, Tenn. to Liverpool, Eng. 58.90

For saloon reservations and any other information, which will be cheerfully given, call on or write to R. H. Wright, general passenger agent, Augusta, Ga., or "C. H. Betts, local manager, Port Royal Shipping Company, Port Royal, S. C." June 17-to July 1-sun-tu-th

ARE YOU GOING TO BE MARRIED?

ARE YOU GOING TO TRAVEL?

If so, how are you rigged out? A lady or gentleman is known by the trunk or valise they carry away that shabby old trunk and valise, and get you an outfit at

GO TO THE ATLANTA TRUNK FACTORY, 92 WHITEHALL

And Get You an Out-fit at Cut-Rate Prices.

We must sell 10,000 trunks during the coming month. To effect this, everything goes now at 33 1/3 per cent off.

Trunks that were $20 now at $13.33.

Trunks that were $30 now at $20.

Trunks that were $40 now at $26.66.

Remember this sale and secure your outfit at these cut rate prices. All new and fresh goods; no shoddy or shop-worn stock.

Lieberman & Kaufmann,

FOOTE'S TRUNK FACTORY,

17 E. Alabama Street,

Stop and consider your own interest. We are closing out entire stock of Trunks and Valises bought of Foote & Bro. at half price, and it is now to your interest to call and examine our stock before buying. Also on hand a large stock of Tourists' Trunks and Bags of all kinds. We are closing out less than cost. Retail and wholesale. Old Trunks exchanged for new ones. Trunk repairing a specialty. Call on us.

Sheriff Sales for July, 1894.

Will be sold, before the courthouse door, in the city of Atlanta, Fulton county, Georgia, on the first Tuesday in July next, within the legal hours of sale, the following described property, to-wit: Lying and being in the city of Atlanta, Fulton county, Georgia, in land lot 108, in the 14th district of originally Henry, now Fulton county, Georgia, the same being known as part of lot No. 25 of the Lewis Lawns property and being old No. 20 Fair street, and fronting on the south side of said Fair street, 50 feet and extending back from said street some width as from 100 feet. Leveled on as the property of G. A. Johnson to satisfy a n. fa. issued from city court of Atlanta, Ga., in favor of C. E. Steele vs. G. A. Johnson and S. L. Johnson. Property pointed out by plaintiff's attorney.

Also, at the same time and place, the following described property: Lying and being in the town of West End, being part of lot 18 in the 14th district of Fulton county, Georgia, and more particularly described as follows: Commencing at a point 200 feet from the southeast corner of Baugh and Peoples streets and running thence east along Baugh street 57 feet to a ten-foot alley; thence south along said alley 154 feet to a ten-foot alley; thence along said alley 154 feet to point of beginning, the measurements north and south being more or less, and the said lot being No. 18. Leveled on as the property of W. E. Johnson and Leon P. Sawyer, security. J. J. BATES, Sheriff. June 7 11 21 28 th

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

HALL BROTHERS, Civil and mining engineers, 61 Gate City bank building, Atlanta, Ga. Surveys of all kinds. Special attention given to mines, shafts, and drainage. July 21-19

R. T. DORSEY, P. H. Brewster, Albert Howell DORSEY, BREWSTER & HOWELL, LAWYERS. Offices—1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 Lowe Building, 24½ Whitehall street. Telephone 630.

SHUBERT & DALEY, ATTORNEYS AT LAW. Office 21½ South Broad street.

HUGH W. WASHINGTON, ATTORNEY AT LAW, MACON, GA. Special attention to railroad damages, corporation cases and collections for non-residents. May 10-6m

PRESTON & SMITH, ATTORNEYS AT LAW, 610 Mulberry street, Macon, Ga. Any matters entrusted to our care, whether in or out of the city of Macon, will receive prompt and careful attention.

MARVIN L. CASE, ATTORNEY AT LAW, 211 Equitable Building, Atlanta, Ga.

C. REINHOLD, ATTORNEY AT LAW, 22½ Wall Street, Atlanta, Ga.

W. W. GOODRICH, ARCHITECT, ATLANTA, GA. Address P. O. Box 274

DR. D. S. ARNOLD, DENTIST. Crown and bridge work a specialty. Over Brant's Drug Store, Peachtree street. Feb 19

DR. THOMPSON, Specialist. Catarrh, Blood, Skin and Chronic Diseases, Eczema, Ulcers, Lupus, Cancer, etc. Medicines furnished, Consultation free.

A Card. The undersigned beg to announce that they have opened a first-class jewelry business and loan office at the address below and in soliciting your patronage we assure you that every article purchased of us, be it the finest diamond or cheapest article we handle, will be sold with a written guarantee and we tell you just how much we will loan you or give back in cash at any future time. Anything pledged with us will be secure and our business in strictest confidence. We are able to make loans to any amount and at lowest rates and for any length of time to suit borrower. We have unusual advantages for the sale of diamonds and watches, our Mr. Kaiser having been in the diamond trade for sixteen years and watch importers for sixteen years and having family connections in the largest New York diamond importing firms. It shall be our aim to merit your patronage by fair and liberal dealings. Intending purchasers will do well to see us. We are established in an elegantly furnished and genteel store, which the most reserved need not hesitate to visit. A look at our show window with its display of costly and interesting things, all plainly marked and accurately described, will repay a visit. See our wonderful White topaz, the nearest approach to the diamond yet discovered, of unequalled brilliancy and hardness and warranted to retain its luster. Very respectfully, N. KAISER & CO., 15 Decatur Street, Kimball House, June 17-19

AT PONCE

The Grand Opening Assembly

EVERYBODY SHOW

Governor Northern

Address, Followed of the Constitu

Beginning tonight

the opening exer

will be held in the

Ponce de Leon Sp

tabernacle, of nearly 5,000 peo

the tent will be o

Mr. Hurt has a crowd, so far as ed, and there will

to and from the g

The opening exer

of the chautauque

dress, explanatory formally open t

of 1894. He will t

Knights, of ten mi

speech of the grea country will be

Tonight's

How many times in your experience you have

WAITED

thinking next week or next month will be time enough to buy a watch, although you know that you are needing it every hour in the day? Do you wish to wait?

UNTIL

you have missed a $1.00 engagement before you buy a $30 watch? Perhaps you think you can guess at the exact time when your train is going to leave, but do not be sure of your accuracy in this direction; a good watch will save you a great deal of anxiety. Business men who study the economical disposition of their time cannot afford to be without a watch, for time is the equivalent of money. Better than never, so let us quote you prices. J. P. Stevens & Bro., Jewelers, 41 Whitehall street.

TOO

LATE

wines!

california wines are rediculously cheap just now. most people can afford to use them for table use, as a substitute for water—better than water, of course—more healthful, too—these hot summer months—claret, hocks, rhine wines, port, sherry, etc., etc., etc.—come in and get our prices—interesting.

bluthenthal "b & b." & bickart,

marietta and forsyth—phone 375. all kinds of fine whiskeys.

FRANK M. POTTS,
HENRY POTTS,
JOSEPH THOMPSON.

The Potts-Thompson Liquor Co.

Importers and Wholesale Dealers.

Also, Distillers of Stone Mountain Corn Whisky and keep everything that can be called for in their line.

7, 9, 11, 13 Kimball House, Decatur St., Atlanta, Ga.

NOW is the time for

Iced Tea.

Our RUSSIAN RESERVE and ELITE BLEND delight all who try them.

THE C. J. KAMPER GROCERY CO.

Phone 623. 390 and 392 Peachtree St.

NEW DOCTORS.

All who visit the foreign doctors before August 21 will receive services two months free of charge. This benevolent offer is extended to the rich and poor alike. Having been selected from the highest graded colleges on the continent, they represent the best medical and surgical training in the world. All diseases of men and women treated. No matter what the name and nature of your disease may be, nor how long standing, do not fail to secure their opinion of your case as it costs you nothing. If incurable they will frankly tell you. During the past two weeks 421 visited the doctors and 183 were rejected as incurable. Hours 10 a. m. to 7 p. m. Sundays 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. Their office is known as the "Foreign Doctor's Office," No. 44 Walton street, corner Fairlie street, Atlanta, Ga. Those unable to call enclose a history of their case together with a 2-cent stamp, and address to Dr. A. Soper, No. 44 Walton street, Atlanta, Ga.

A. K. HAWKES,
Manufacturing Optician

The only optical plant run by electric motor power in the state. All the latest inventions for testing eyesight; established twenty-three years. Headquarters for the United States, 12 Whitehall street.

TAX NOTICE.

Only a few days left for making STATE AND COUNTY TAX RETURNS. Come at once and avoid the rush.

T. M. ARMISTEAD, Tax Receiver.

CAUGHT AT LAST

A Negro, Whose Escape Caused Two Policemen to Be Dismissed.

HE TRIES TO GET AWAY AGAIN.

He Tells an Amusing Story of How He Escaped from Four Officers Last Year—His Story.

The negro who escaped from four officers last summer and caused two of them to lose their places and the other two to lose thirty days was captured yesterday and made two desperate efforts to get away. But the policemen who had him in charge this time held to him with a firm, unyielding grip, and he was not allowed to jeopardize their positions by escaping once more.

The negro is Elias Ellis, alias John Pleasant, and he has been badly wanted on an aggravated case of burglary for several months. Since he got away from four officers late last summer he has kept out of the way of the local police, and it was not until yesterday that Patrolman Elliott and Norman found him.

Last September the city detectives were making an anxious search for Ellis. It was learned that he was stopping at a house on Mangum street, but could not be found there until late at night. Patrolmen Bethes, Patterson, Bowie and Thompson were detailed to go to the house and arrest him.

The four policemen went to the house designated and when they came to make a report of it it was that they had failed to find Ellis. A few hours later a story reached police headquarters to the effect that the officers had found Ellis and arrested him, but that he escaped from them.

Chief Connolly immediately commenced an investigation, and the result of it was that the four officers were suspended before they had been looking into the case two hours. An old negro was found who said that he was present when the officers arrested Ellis and saw the prisoner escape. When the case came to trial Bethes and Patterson were dismissed from the force and Bowie and Thompson got thirty days each.

Since this happened Ellis has been missing. Efforts to find him have been made since, but he has retained his liberty, which he bought at the price of two policemen's jobs, until yesterday.

Patrolmen Elliott and Norman arrested him, and the moment they placed their hands upon him, he began to resist. He fought until he had torn himself out of his coat, but the officers did not let him go.

On the way to police headquarters, Ellis made another attempt to escape. He tried to leap over the side rail of the patrol wagon, but the officers in charge grabbed him about the neck and held him by main force. He struggled for liberty until he saw that it was useless to waste strength.

Ellis tells an amusing story of how he got away from the four officers last year. "They came in and said they would have to take me down," said he, "I asked them what for and they wouldn't tell. I said all right, let me get my hat. I walked into the room to get it and they followed me. When I got in there I didn't wait for them but just went out the window. That's how I escaped."

It is impossible to travel far with the man who rides a hobby. But if you and your companion take Hock's Sarsaparilla you will have health and strength for long years.

Gala Day.
Next Saturday will be a gala day at East Lake. Many attractions will be offered for a day of pleasure, such as boat races, swimming matches, sack races, and at 1 o'clock a barbecue will be served in the pavilion, and outside of all other attractions, music and dancing will be had for the entire day. Don't forget, if you want a day of real pleasure, take in East Lake Saturday, June 23d. June 20-21.

Water Cure Sanitarium.
Is permanently located in Griffin, Ga., to receive and treat all invalids. Send postage stamp for circular.
March 12, 1894.
DR. J. M. ARMSTRONG, Proprietor.

Dr. Hathaway & Co. are the leading specialists in all diseases peculiar to men and women, 224 South Broad street.
mar 18-19.

Disordered Liver set right with Becham's Pills.

Notice.
Parties of Cincinnati, calling themselves "Kentucky Blue Lick Water Company," have issued circulars claiming control of the Blue Lick water of Kentucky, and are supplying the trade from an artesian well near Covington, Ky., fully 100 miles from the celebrated Blue Lick Springs of Nicholas county.

The public is hereby warned that we have the exclusive control of the famous upper Blue Lick Spring, and the higher courts of Kentucky have affirmed all other waters a fraud sold to the trade from elsewhere than Nicholas county. Highest honors awarded at the world's fair. See that all packages bear our trade mark. Address E. C. Hawkins & Co., proprietors Blue Lick Springs, Ky., or G. G. Brown, agent, Atlanta, Ga.

To the Traveling Public!
Why pay $2.50 and $3 per day when you can go to the New Allen house at Americus, Ga., and get the same for $2 per day? Strike a first-class $2 house. When in Americus stop at the New Allen house, where everything is convenient. No going three and four stories to get to your rooms; everything on second floor. Rooms unsurpassed, large and airy; new furniture. Menu can't be excelled for the price; polite and attentive servants; best cooks; good sample rooms, no extra charge for them. We guarantee satisfaction. Give us a trial, and our word for it, you will not regret it. Special rates for month and week. Inside figures to show and large parties. N. F. Powell, Manager.

$41.20 to Denver and Return.
June 22d, 23d and 24th the Georgia Pacific railway will sell round-trip tickets to Denver, good returning within thirty days. Rate from Atlanta, $41.20 round trip. Occasion, national convention republican league. June 16-17.

"THE HEAVENLY TWINS."
One of the most popular novels of the day at half price. Owing to the repeated demands for this new and popular book the publishers have issued a paper edition of 50,000 copies.

Mr. John M. Miller will place on sale Monday morning 1,000 copies of this book, filled at 15 cents postpaid. Address all orders to John M. Miller, agent, 39 Marietta street, Atlanta, Ga. June 3-1m.

VERY CHEAP.
To New York, Boston, Philadelphia and the East.
Via Central railroad to Savannah, thence by finest coastwise passenger steamers flying the American flag. Tickets include meals and staterooms. Apply to Sam B. Webb, traveling passenger agent, No. 16 Wall st., Atlanta, Ga.

Atlanta, Ga.—Sir: My child, five years old, had symptoms of worms. I tried calomel and other worm medicines, but without expelling any. Seeing Mr. Bates' certificate, I got a trial of your Worm Oil, and the first dose brought forty worms, and the second dose saw many were passed I did not count them.
S. H. ADAMS.

How to Save Money.
By giving your plumbing work to J. B. Bowen, 125 East Hunter street. Why is it that I can do work cheaper than any one else, because I do the work myself, with eighteen years' experience, and as a rule in other shops where they have to employ time they charge up, and of course it is to their interest to take as long as possible on the job, for fear of being laid off when they return to the shop. If you want to save money don't forget the name and place.
J. B. BOWEN,
125 East Hunter Street.
June 20-21

Quick to Carrollton.
Leave Atlanta 5:45 p. m., arrive Carrollton 8:45 p. m., via Atlanta and West Point railroad, the short line.
June 21-3-thur fri sun

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder.
A Pure Grape Cream of Tartar Powder.

EXPERIMENT.

Change your Clothier! Many have done so since we began business in Atlanta; otherwise the splendid class of customers that now prospers and encourages this store would be lacking. Few are wedded to old ideas, old systems, old methods of trade.

AGGRESSIVE! PROGRESSIVE!

Always alert and awake. That's why we so quickly and easily assumed leadership in the Clothing business of this community. Where had you rather bestow your patronage, where all is quick and sympathetic or where everything is slow and phlegmatic? Choose! We believe preference will be given to

Eads-Neel Co

"A FAIR FACE MAY PROVE A POOR BARGAIN." MARRY A PLAIN GIRL IF SHE USES

SAPOLIO

Silver Belts!

Silver Toilet Articles!

Everything in Sterling Silver Novelties. Infinite variety of beautiful and useful pieces in Sterling Silver and Cut Glass for wedding and other presents. Large stock of beautiful new and original designs in Diamond Jewelry at reasonable prices.

We give you full value for your money.

MAIER & BERKELE, Jewelers.

31 Whitehall St.

Factory and Wholesale Department 28 1-2 & 30 1-2 Whitehall.

The Clarke Hardware Co.

See Grass Hammocks from 75c to $1.25
Palmer's Best Cotton Hammocks from $1.50 to $4.
A beautiful line to select from.
Croquet, the best made, from $1 to $3 per set.
A. G. Spaulding & Bros. Baseball, Athletic and Tennis Supplies.
Anything in Hardware and Sporting Goods, all up to the times.
Catalog free.
Peachtree St. and Edgewood Av., Atlanta, Ga.

I GUARANTEE

to sell everything in the Drug Line at as low a price as any retail Drug house in the south. I am now making a special low price on all kinds of patent medicines and druggists' sundries. Remember I handle only strictly pure goods.

Chas. O. Tyner,

Cor. Broad and Marietta Sts.

Alaska Refrigerators

Are the Best in the World!

This claim is fully substantiated wherever an "Alaska" is used.

"THE REASON WHY."

The principal causes of decay in meats and fruits are DAMPNESS and VARYING TEMPERATURE. The qualities sought for in a Refrigerator are PRESERVATION OF PERISHABLE FOOD and an economical use of ice.

The "Alaska" is constructed upon strictly scientific principles, by which LOW TEMPERATURE and ABSOLUTE DRYNESS OF AIR are naturally and inevitably obtained.

The "Alaska" possesses a provision chamber FREE FROM ODOR AND FROM DAMPNESS. These results can be obtained only by a PERFECT CIRCULATION OF THE AIR in the Refrigerator, and its CONDENSATION IN THE ICE CHAMBER.

The "Alaska" keeps the air in contact with the ice longer than any other Refrigerator, condenses all the moisture before the air returns to the provision chamber, and in utilizing all the cold air, PRODUCES BETTER RESULTS WITH LESS ICE than any other make.

The "Alaska" is a perfect DRY-AIR REFRIGERATOR, and the best one ever constructed.

Sold only by

DOBBS, WEY & CO.,

61 Peachtree St., Atlanta, Ga.

NOT GIVING GOODS AWAY!

But if you are on the lookout for a complete stock of Men's, Boys' and Children's Suits and everything else in male attire—the kind that gives satisfaction—looks well, wears well—the kind that makes you a lasting customer—we claim a large share of you patronage.

Prices right.

HIRSCH BROTHERS

44 Whitehall.

A. H. BUTCHER, President.

S. W. BEACH, Secretary and Treasurer.

J. A. G. BEACH, O. WINGATE, Vice Presidents.

THE ATLANTA PLUMBING COMPANY

Phone 102. Contractors of Plumbing, Steam and Gas

12 Loyd Street, Atlanta, Ga.

GREATEST BARGAINS ON EARTH!

Fifty Thousand Dollars worth Elegant Chamber, Parlor, Dining Room and Office Furniture

MUST BE SOLD!

Bedroom Suits, polished oak, only $18, Large Rattan Rocker, only $1.90. Wardrobes, Hat Racks, Book Cases, Couches. One thousand and Odd Chairs at 25 and 50 cents on the dollar. Elegant Grand Rapids Furniture at half price.

The entire stock, covering four immense floors, must go, if it does not bring half cost. One thousand Spring Beds and Mattresses in this great sale.

PEYTON H. SNOOK & SON.

Wrought Iron Pipe FITTINGS
—AND—BRASSGOODS

HEADQUARTERS FOR

SUPPLIES!

Of every description for Cotton and Woolen Mills, Oil Mills, Saw and Planing Mills, Railroads, Quarries, Machine Shops, etc. Send for list of new and second-hand Machinery.

THE BROWN & KING SUPPLY CO.

ATLANTA, GA.

DO YOUR COOKING FOR 3 CENTS A DAY

CALL AND SEE IT.

Boils, bakes and broils at the trifling expense of one cent a meal. We have the largest line of Gasoline, Oil, Gas, Coal and Wood Stoves and Ranges in the South. Everything needed for the summer in the way of Ice Cream Freezers, Refrigerators, Ice Shavers, Moulds, Curd Presses, Jelly Moulds, Charlotte Russe Cups, Bread Knives, Cream Whips, Etc. Everything at hard time prices.

HUNNICUTT & BELLINGRATH CO.